Committee—new high school a common cure

by MARY SULLIVAN
Lakeland Newspapers

Citing continued growth in the feeder schools and in the community as a sure thing, the Antioch High School Citizens' Referendum Committee is betting on the $29.9 million referendum as a consolidated solution to a community-wide problem.

"This is a plan that benefits the whole community," said Committee Co-Chairman Joyce Henneberry, "the aim is to help everyone and make it cheaper for the taxpayer in the long run."

Antioch Community High School Dist. 117 taxpayers reside and are distributed throughout the villages of Antioch, Lindenhurst and Lake Villa, as well as in Lake Villa and Antioch Townships.

If passed, the $29.9 million in bonds would be utilized for the construction of a new Dist. 117 high school facility located equi-distant from each municipality on a 51-acre tract. The property, Polley Field located at the southeast corner of Grass Lake Road and Deep Lake Road in Lake Villa, is currently owned by the district for use as athletic fields.

The committee promotes two primary selling points of the project:

- the accommodation of 2,400 high school students in the new facility

- the consequent availability of space in the existing high school building to ease space shortages in feeder schools.

"The taxpayers are really getting a bargain," said Antioch Dist. 34 Supt. Dr. Donald Skidmore, "they're getting two-for-one in a sense."

The $32 million price tag for the high school is based upon architects' estimates figuring in state recommendations for amount of square footage per student.

The preliminary plan outlines a building that would accommodate 2,400 students with classrooms for all academic areas, necessary lab space, vocational/technical education facilities, an auditorium, cafeteria, library, some physical education and athletic areas, fine arts and a swimming pool.

With a $32 million cap on the cost of the entire project, the $29.9 million in bonds would be reinvested in capital appreciation bond to generate the remainder in interest over the two-year construction period.

The cost to the taxpayer would amount to $127 per year on a home valued at $100,000 when the bonds are paid back on a 15-year plan, or $92 per year on the same home if the bonds are repaid on a 20-year plan.

"Interest rates are at a historical low," said ACHS board member and banker Ted Axton, "if we miss the boat now we will be paying more the next year or the year after that and in my view it has to be done sometime."

According to projections by the Northeastern Illinois Planning Commission (Continued on Page 8)

Antioch Police Dept. Sr. Lt. Thomas Fisher is back on the job following an extended leave of absence culminating in a three-day suspension without pay. His associate, Officer Michael Culat is awaiting the result of his hearing which is continuing before the Village Police and Fire Commission. Each had been brought up on charges of conduct unbecoming an officer by Police Chief Chuck Miller, in seeking their dismissals.

As the hearing process continues before the commission, Antioch Mayor Robert Wilton is adding up the mounting cost to the taxpayers. He estimates the bill could top $40,000.

"Just based on the hearing back in December I've tried to estimate what it will cost," he said, "I estimate his (Miller's attorney Michael Cummins) bill alone will cost $15,000 to $20,000."

Included in Wilton's projections are attorneys fees, salary paid to both officers while on leave of absence, and police department time used for research of the cases. He calculates attorneys' fees based on Cummins hourly rate of $150 and police commission chairman Bernard Wisocki's hourly rate of $125. Additionally, village attorney Ken Clark has submitted a bill of over $1,100 for work done on the matter.

Wilton says the village has received a $4,400 bill from Cummins for services rendered in connection with a police (Continued on Page 5)

Lake County's pride

Libertyville boys basketball team became the first Lake County team in 30 years to win fourth place in the Class AA state tournament. Wildcats earned the respect of the entire state and were welcomed home with an assembly Sunday. Members receive their individual medals for their fourth place finish in Class AA state finals at Assembly Hall. Team members are (not in order): John Cimarioli, Chris Majeri, Matt Sriver, Matt Kosowski, Darren Cohen, Matt Williams, John Garwal, Frank Walter, Zac Addams, Jon Bauer, Andy Bauer, Scott Keegan and Gregg Wheeler. Lake County at a Glance

Water rates to drop

MUNDELEIN—Water rates will drop May 1, possibly up to 20 percent. This is mandated by an eight-year-old ordinance that put in motion an eight-year water main replacement program, which is now almost complete. The bad news? Water rates will go back up next year at this time when the village begins pumping water from Lake Michigan.

The Golden Goose

LIBERTYVILLE—Auto dealers will get the respect they deserve. The 15 proprietary dealers, who contribute 61 percent of the village's annual sales tax revenue, will be the beneficiaries of a business retention program and a new liaison to untangle village red tape. The Economic Development Commission will later extend the program to other businesses.

Welcome troops

FOX LAKE—Mayor Frank Meier appointed Dorothy E. Otte and Dennis McGarry of Lake Region Post American Legion to organize a huge welcoming celebration July 4 for residents serving in the Persian Gulf War. Trustee Alberta Meyer called for a community-wide celebration "to show our troops we're happy to have them home."

Party politics

WAUCONDA — Wauconda's non-partisan battle for four village trustee seats has been flanked by some party maneuvering. James Eschenbauch, an incumbent trustee up for re-election as part of the Wauconda Unified Party, said U.S. Congressman Phil Crane was duped into attending a fundraiser for the opposing slate. Crane, a Republican and representative for the 12th District, gave a brief talk and posed for pictures during a breakfast fundraiser for the Citizens Party at Mers Restaurant Feb. 23. "Congressman Crane knows that the Unified Party includes upfront, known Republicans," said Eschenbauch, who's also a GOP precinct committeeman. "What Crane didn't know is that the Citizens Party includes known Democrats, including a party employee and organizer."

Site still possible

NORTH BARRINGTON — The possible site for the Lake Zurich Rural Fire Protection Dist. is still possible even though it won an unanimous vote of disapproval last week from the North Barrington Planning Committee. The site, located on Rte. 22, near Rte. 59, was disapproved by the North Barrington Committee on March 11 due to a number of reasons, according to Village Clerk Estelle Garad.

No speedy hearing

NORTH CHICAGO—The City of North Chicago won a court battle in an Elgin appellate court when it was ruled that the city manager form of government will not be handled in an expeditious manner. Supporters of the city manager form, hoping to still have the issue placed on the April 2 ballot, were expecting an expedited hearing because of the tightness of the election framework.

Delay trial

WAUKEGAN—The trial date for William Carlson, accused in the murder of his parents, has been delayed until April 29. The trial was expected to begin March 25 before the continuation was ordered last week. Lake County Circuit Court Judge John Goshgarian ruled against Carlson's lawyer, Robert Hauser, in Hauser's attempt to have the court pay his legal fees.

Village wins battle

LAKE ZURICH—A two-year battle between the Village of Lake Zurich and Ancient Oaks was settled in federal court in favor of the village. The owner of the 70 unit apartment complex was ordered to demolish the building.

The Victory Memorial Chemical Dependency Program

708-688-HELP

The battlefield is her home. The fight is over drugs. And she's losing. She's losing her husband, her family, her hope. And ironically, she's not the one who is dependent, it's her husband. Yet, she's imprisoned by his addiction.

Chemical dependency takes a terrible toll. Not just on the addicted individual, but on all who depend on him or her. Until you're able to break free from the imprisonment of your spouse's habit, the cycle will continue, day in and day out.

How do you break free?
You begin by seeking professional help. The trained professionals at Victory Memorial Hospital's Chemical Dependency Program understand how to break the cycle and return the entire family to wellness. It's not an easy process, but the rewards are beyond imagination.

If someone you love is chemically dependent, you need to summon the strength to change your life today. You need to call the Victory Memorial Help Line at 708-688-HELP, anytime day or night. When you do, you'll speak with a caring, knowledgeable individual who can help you take that first, dramatic step toward wellness and wholeness.

Don't waste another day. Your life will only get better once you act. And the time to act is now.

Host families needed

CLC announces scholarships

Applications are now being accepted at the College of Lake County for two scholarships sponsored by the National Association of Accountants (NAA) and the American Business Women's Association.

The Illinois Northeast Chapter of the NAA will award $250 to eligible Lake County residents who are pursuing an associate's degree in accounting. Candidates must be continuing sophomores who have completed a minimum of 30 credit hours and enrolled in at least six credit hours. Selection will be based on academic achievement.

The Little Fort Charter Chapter of the American Business Women's Association (Gurnee) will award scholarships ranging from $150 to $500 for the school year beginning fall, 1991, to women interested in pursuing a business career. Candidates must be in good scholastic standing with at least average grades and must demonstrate financial need.

Application deadline is April 1. For information and application, call CLC's financial aid office, (708)223-3610.

commission disciplinary hearing in December in which charges against Culat were ceased to be pursued.

Introduced at the proceedings are 480 hours of video tapes of activities in the police department mailroom. The tapes are have been brought forth as evidence in each matter after being reviewed by Lt. Charles Watkins. Wilton criticized the review process for taking an officer off patrol while reviewing tapes at a cost of $17 per hour.

Pending the outcome of the hearings, Wilton says both officers have been receiving full pay and benefits. Fisher was off duty for 35 days at a cost of $5050. Culat remains off duty after at least 40 days.

A 21-year police veteran, Fisher pled guilty to one of nine charges against him. Pursuant to a settlement agreement between the parties, the remaining charges were "amicably resolved."

Now working the 8 p.m. to 4 a.m.

shift, Fisher returned to work March 18.

"I've been saying all along that we don't have enough policemen on at night," said Wilton, "this will eliminate police officers sitting in their squad cars drinking coffee."

Additionally, a statement released to the press adds that "at no time has Lt. Fisher been charged with or suspected of sexual misconduct or any other immoral conduct."

Fisher pled guilty to a charge of "making demeaning remarks" against the chief over the phone. He served the resulting three-day suspension by forfeiture of three personal days.

The agreement was reached following the opening round of testimony before the commission. Millers' attorney, Michael Cummins sought to introduce information on audio and video tapes as evidence against Fisher in regard to a number of the charges. The charges varied and spanned the time period of Dec. 28, 1989 to January, 1991.

Antioch plans mass tree planting for Arbor Day

by MARY SULLIVAN
Lakeland Newspapers

"I think that I will never see..." a thing so lovely as the trees that will be planted in Antioch's First Annual Arbor Day Celebration. Two-thousand seedlings of four different varieties will be planted throughout Antioch Parks and Recreation Department property on April 27.

The event, organized by the Antioch Commission on the Environment, will put sixth graders from Antioch Upper Grade School to work planting Austrian Pines, Colorado Blue Spruce, Norway Spruce and White Pines. Students from Antioch Community High School will also lend a hand in the all-day planting.

According to Bud Newton, coordinator of the project, the seedlings were purchased from the Lake County Soil and Water Conservation District through donations from the village's Rotary and Lions' Clubs.

Newton has contacted the Parks and Recreation Dept. to designate sites where the trees will be planted.

The first Arbor Day was held on April 10, 1872 in Nebraska. J. Sterling, a member of the Nebraska State Board of Agriculture recognized the importance of trees and urged legislators to have a day "consecrated for tree planting."

Today, Arbor Day is observed in every state and in some foreign countries, traditionally on the last Friday in April.

The Antioch observance is set for Saturday to accommodate students. Newton says he hopes the event will become an annual one and that other areas in the village will be considered for planting.

Parks and recreation boss leaves for corporate job

The Antioch Village Board of Trustees regretfully accepted the resignation of Parks and Recreation Director Teresa Kovach, March 18.

"I'm excited, I'm looking for something new and a little bit more challenging," she said, "it was just time to pass the baton."

She is joining the ranks of a corporation to coordinate programs.

Kovach has been working for the department for five years. She began her employment under the direction of Glenda Tomachuk, when she worked part-time while attending college. She logged three years in a full-time capacity with the district.

During that time she organized the reconstruction of the Antioch Aqua Center.

"It was disastrous when I first got here, now it's brand new," she said.

Additionally, she had the Miss Antioch Pageant moved from out of the uncertain climate of the pavilion to the Antioch Community High School Auditorium.

"It put a touch of class to it," she added.

The parks and recreation department board is expected to make a recommendation as to a successor for Kovach. All projects currently under way will proceed as scheduled.

Individuals wishing to put information in the newsletter should call Candy Olsen, 395.2160.

Emmons students jump against heart disease

Students from Emmons School will be jumping into the fight against heart disease on Friday, April 5. The special event is called Jump Rope for Heart, and is being sponsored by the American Alliance for Health, Physical Education, Recreation, and Dance (AAHPERD), along with local physical education teachers. Proceeds from this event will go to benefit the American Heart Assoc. (AHA).

Begun in 1979, Jump Rope for Heart has already involved almost 10 million teachers and students nationwide.

Students are formed into jump-rope teams for the fundraiser. Emmons School students participating in this event will be sponsored by family, friends, and neighbors. Sponsors donations are based on each minute a team jumps. The money raised will help fund the AHA's heart and blood vessel research, public education, and community programs, as well as a variety of AAHPERD programs.

Program coordinators and sponsors feel that one of the benefits of the event is that students will be actively involved in learning about their hearts, and leading healthful lifestyles.

Anniversary

40th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hunley of Antioch celebrated their 40th Wedding Anniversary. They were married in Mountain Lakes, N.J. on Jan. 14, 1951. A special celebration dinner hosted by their children, was held at Giovanni's Restaurant on Eagle Lake in Wisconsin. The Hunley's four children and several grandchildren were all in attendance.

Among those present were Heather (Hunley) and Ken Curtis and their children Vanessa, Janelle, and Valerie Curtis from Shullsburg, Wis., Pam (Hunley) and Vince Engler from Grayslake, Robin (Hunley) and Ken Kasuboski from Burlington, Wis., and Bob and Joan Hunley who came all the way from Titusville, Fla. to surprise Bob's parents.

Student magazine earns 'E' for excellent ranking

Finesse, Antioch Community High School's literary magazine, received national acclaim from the National Council of Teachers of English (NCTE). The publication was ranked as "excellent" in the council's annual evaluation which included over 1,100 entries.

With a staff of ten student editors, Finesse is a compilation written work of about 300 students. All entries are voluntarily submitted. About 25 percent is published in the magazine, said John Whitehurst, faculty advisor.

In addition to sifting through the volume of submissions and selecting suitable entries, the students editors type-set, proof-read, lay out and obtain artwork for the publication.

Upon its completion, the 100-page magazine is sold for $20. In its twelfth year of publication, Finesse has consistently been recognized as "excellent" by the NCTE since the evaluations began five years ago.

Involvement

Marie Brausam and I would like to thank Pam Cardis, troop leader, and all the members of Girl Scout Troop #1134 for inviting us to participate in two recent meetings. We taught the girls how to paint heart flag pins and earrings and to assemble shoelace and curly ribbon barrettes. The girls were truly a joy to work with as their cooperation and enthusiasm made our task that much more enjoyable and easy. Pam Cardis is the troop leader, Linda Webel is the co-leader and Tommy Webel and Johnny Cardis are the troop mascots. Congratulations to the following members of troop #1134 for doing a job well done. Theresa Mozal, Jill Cardis, Jessica Cardis, Jenny Cardis, Ryan Dunfrund, Brigitte Leonard, Tami Edelman, Jillian Litchford, Shelly Schaaf, Kristin Becmer, Kristin Franzen, Amber Gore, Jennifer Hatcher, Cindy Jones, Karen Lochhead, Christina Lochhead, Megan McHale and Sandy Webel. In closing we would like to thank the girls for the beautiful thank you card and ask Tommy Webel how much is two plus two?

Wrestling

The AUGS Wrestling Apaches are on their way to another winning season. The Apaches lost their season opener to Addams Junior High 41-27, but have bounced back defeating Waukegan 66-16, Hawthorne 46-23, Lake Zurich 68-6, Johnsburg (double dual) 77-15 and 58-18, Olsen of Woodstock 78-

Speed Skating Champ

Brad Rubash recently competed and won the Nation Long Track Speed Skating Championship held at the U.S. High Altitude

Sports Center in Butte, Montana. Brad was the overall National Champion in the age twelve and thirteen division. He captured this title with first place finishes in the 300, 500, and 800 meter races.

Hometown Goodies

His time in the 800 meter race also set a new national record. The previous record had been set in 1983. Before going to Montana, Brad had won the Illinois Outdoor Speed Skating Championship with first place finishes in all events. Naturally Brad's family, mom Norma, dad Duane and brother Brian are very proud of him. All I can say is, remember the name folks, and keep an eye out for him as a future olympic competitor!!

dinner/dance tickets. The Grass Lake School P.T.O. is holding its annual dinner/dance on May 4 at Andre's Steak House in Richmond. The tickets are on sale for $13 per person and you can contact Julie or receive an abundance of new and educational toys. The Camp Crayon staff would like to thank everyone for purchasing so many items and also extend their thanks to Luanne for presenting the products so well. If you would like to host a Tupperware Party or need any items serviced, Luanne will be available to tend to your needs.

Who moved my seat?

Recently my husband, daughter Donna and I went to a showing of Walt Disney's "White Fang." I (who often dozes during movies) had no trouble keeping my eyes open as this orphaned wolf pup was faced with one mishap after another. However, three quarters of the way into the movie I noticed hubby grabbing forty winks. I elbowed him awake, he mumbled, shifted his position in the seat, and "plunk" the cup on his lap fell to the center aisle. He then crawled after the rolling cup and once he retrieved it, he slithered backwards to reclaim his seat. In his absence, the seat popped up to its unoccupied position and as he backed into position he naturally began to drop to the floor fighting the landing all the way. I must admit, he battled the fall in style, sort of bouncing up and down, thinking if he kept aiming he would surely settle safely somewhere. Eventually he landed on the floor, struggled to his feet, re-lowered the chair, and tried to resume watching the movie as if nothing happened. This last task was impossible as Donna and I were, by now, giggling out of control, as this naturally shy man tried to look inconspicuous in a very conspicuous situation.

PUNCH

Letter to the Editor

Better spent Editor:

Forty thousand dollars or so would go a long way toward paying for some new park equipment. It would pay a substantial portion of the cost of a new set of stoplights at Orchard St. It would cover the cost of some crossing signals on the many uncontrolled grade crossings in and near Antioch. It would also go a long way toward lining the pockets of a few lawyers.

Of the possible uses of our tax money, the bitter, fractious and often absurd infighting between the appointed police chief and our popularly elected head of government has resulted in the lining of a few out-town lawyers' pockets. I refer to the huge sums spent on attorneys Bernie Wysocki in his representation of the Antioch Board of Fire and Police Commissioners and Michael Cummins in his prosecution of the charges brought by Chief Miller against Lt. Tom Fisher.

I understand that except for a very brief suspension for criticizing the chief, Lt. Fisher has been completely vindicated of the many apparently baseless charges made by his boss. I fail to see how Tom Fisher did anything wrong in criticizing the man who was outgunning for his job. I don't suppose many others do either.

Even so, it was just last summer that we heard many charges made about the "ridiculous expense" created by the mayor's efforts to appoint a new police chief. That figure paled in comparison to these astronomical sums. Frankly, I think it's about time the taxpayers of Antioch started getting something more for their tax dollars than a few rich out of town lawyers. If the main players had to pay for the lawyers themselves, I bet we'd see some more reasonable action. We should keep this in mind as we go to the polls next month.

It's the wearin' of the green at Antioch AARP

Amid a green forest of shamrocks and Leprechauns dancing on the walls, green clad members of Antioch Area Chapter 387 of the American Assn. of Retired Persons (AARP), celebrated an early St. Patrick's Day at the regular meeting March 12. Sam Lombardo arranged a corned beef and cabbage lunch served by Mr. G of Ingleside, which added a realistic touch to the Irish celebration. Credit for the decorations went to Anita Osborne, Marian Gillengerten and Clara Halting. Table decorations were made by Grace Ullrich.

The meeting was conducted by President Ruth Rynders. Marcella Jesse, chairman of the nominating committee, announced that nominations for new officers are now being sought and anyone interested in taking an office for the ensuing year should contact her as soon as possible.

Bob Ullrich, legislative chairman, cautioned members to be very careful before renting equipment, appliances, and tv's because scam artists are taking advantage of seniors who may end up paying more rent than the actual selling price of new articles. He also told members that the 15 cent surcharge by Illinois Bell may be eliminated. Marge LaParr, program chairman introduced Rubye Shepard, of the Illinois Dept. of Revenue, who explained qualifications necessary for the Circuit Breaker Program. Senior citizens and disabled persons with income of less than $14,000 per year are eligible and may receive this tax rebate. Tours Chairman Glen Peterson has a few tickets left for the Hawaiian trip on May 25.

Beautiful door prizes were awarded after the meeting.

Next meeting will be a bake sale on Tuesday, March 26.

(NIPC), all of these areas included in Dist. 117 are experiencing and will continue to experience significant population growth. In the next five years, the Village of Antioch is expected to grow by 55 percent, Lindenhurst by 52 percent and Lake Villa by 205 percent.

The population surge is being evidenced in feeder school districts where solutions to the space crisis are being considered.

The Emmons School District 33 Board of Education has passed a resolution in favor of the referendum and acknowledging the feasibility of leasing space at the existing site. Antioch Grade School Dist. 34 has reached a tentative lease agreement with the Dist. 117 and Lake Villa Dist. 41 is considering a similar plan.

"It is the position of the board here not to make a nickel over our costs for the feeder schools," said ACHS Board of Education President Glen Moore in regard to the prospective leasing terms.

On the high school level, with a current enrollment of 1,600 students, ACHS Director of Curriculum Peter Pekkarinen says that the school is at 96.6 percent of room utilization on a daily basis. This means that nearly all classroom space is being utilized at nearly all times, allowing no time for set-up, clean-up or special projects. The state recommends a 85 percent utilization.

Pekkarinen adds that the core facilities such as cafeteria, library, auditorium, physical education facilities, guidance and attendance areas and hallways are crowded and not expandable.

"1,600 is really pushing the capacity of this building," said ACHS Supt. Gary Allen.

NIPC projections indicate that swelling ranks of students now attending the feeder schools will amount to a 25 percent jump in enrollment at ACHS within five years. Additionally, Allen and committee members point to added state mandates, more students electing to go to college and desire of students to take more classes, as further demands on the structure.

In reaching their decision advocate the construction of a new school, the committee says that 13 short-term solutions were considered. These considerations and provision of sewer and water service will be detailed in next week's Lakeland Newspapers.

ACHS program bridges teen communication gap

The Antioch Community High School Student Assistance Program is now offering information and registration for an innovative video-based program designed to help parents communicate with their teenagers.

Called "Active Parenting of Teens", the program features over 60 video vignettes on relevant and timely topics concerning today's teens. The video-based group discussion program gives parents support and confidence, as well as practical ideas and ways to effectively raise teens in today's confusing world.

During the course, parents learn skills of encouragement, discipline and communication with other parents under the guidance of an experienced group leader.

The course will be offered in six two-hour sessions, beginning Wednesday, April 3, and ending Wednesday, May 8. A $15 fee will be charged.

To register, call Cathy Cratty or Tom Baba, 395-1421.

Drug clinic offered free

The Gateway Foundation, Lake Villa, is sponsoring a Family Education Program on Chemical Dependence Prevention and Treatment. The six sessions are free of charge and meet twice monthly on Sundays from 3 to p.m.

The sessions will focus on the following: Understanding Addiction; The Family Feels the Disease; Co-Dependency; Illness and Recovery; Twelve Step Programs in Recovery; and Continuing Recovery and Personal Growth.

For more information call Deborah Davis, 356-8205 for dates of upcoming sessions. The center is located at 25480 W. Cedarcrest Lane.

Research, info, benefits light 1 little AIDS candle

by GLORIA DAVIS
Lakeland Newspapers

This is the final of a three-part series intended to put the AIDS disease back in the headlines where it belongs until a cure is discovered and the numbers of its victims stops snowballing more each year.

The good news is that there are presently several treatments for AIDS. Besides the well-known AZT, there are medications such as aerosolized pentamidine, which slows down the spread of the HIV virus, and batrim, a newer treatment that is used when patients can no longer take AZT or can't tolerate AZT from the start. Bactrim stabilizes the immune system with less side effects.

AIDS babies can now be treated with small doses of AZT. This was not possible before.

The bad news is that AIDS is still a rapidly spreading fatal disease for which a vaccine has still to be discovered.

According to William Houtz, director of the Southeastern Wis. AIDS Project, "Every six months we receive from the Federal Drug Administration a 30 page report on the progress of AIDS research and experiments. There's lots of work going on out there."

More bad news is that like all "bad" things, there is a world of people out there that refuse to deal with the fact that "It can happen to me." This could be one of the willing to give out all the information they have and also to steer a potential or positive victim towards help.

Calling 1-800-AID — AIDS, the area's AIDS hotline, will either answer a caller's questions on the highly contagious disease or direct them to someone who will be able to come to their assistance.

"We now deal with Chicago agencies and use Chicago's AIDS hotline until 'the sure 'you can't get AIDS by being a blood donor.'"

We asked Bergman about testing for AIDS and steps to follow if that testing is either HIV positive or the results show the patient has AIDS.

Everyone who feels that they might have been exposed to the virus within the last three months should either go to their own physicians or an agency of the health department for testing.

The Lake County Health Dept. offers free anonymous and confidential AIDS/HIV testing at its Belvidere Medical Bldg., 2400 Belvidere Rd., Waukegan. Testing is by appointment only. Call (708)360-6891.

Remember, the testing is only good up to 12 weeks before the testing date.

"We also have many people who are just cautious wanting AIDS tests, but the largest group are those people who are getting married and have been married before, or who have been in sexual contact with someone other than the intended spouse," Bergman said.

"There are anonymous testing sights where people are given numbers instead of names. This is used by people who want no record of having been tested for AIDS for insurance companies to find," adds Bergman.

If the test results show a positive HIV virus or AIDS infection, people are referred to infectious disease physicians who also will consult with their own doctors during the treatment that follows.

Both Bergman's staff, the Wisconsin AIDS project people, and all the AIDS Hotlines can tell an AIDS victim where to get funded ongoing treatment.

Meanwhile there are many groups doing what they can to raise money for further AIDS research and also to help AIDS victims financially. Famous entertainers continue to perform at benefits because the AIDS numbers in the entertainment industry are high.

Film star Elizabeth Taylor has been one of tinsel town's leading raisers of money for AIDS research.

On a smaller scale, volunteers for the Wisconsin AIDS Project are planning a benefit cruise on Lake Geneva this summer to raise money for the project.

Every little bit counts, so members of the Lake County Homemakers Extension Assn. are busy making ABC (AIDS Baby Crib) quilts to be used locally by some of the 20,000 HIV AIDS Virus infected babies expected nationwide.

On a more individual level, one member of the extension association has already made 17 of these quilts herself, working on the "one little candle" idea.

AIDS

Yesterday's news, tomorrow's impact biggest problems facing the many agencies that are striving to stop the explosive spread of what has been considered to be "the Bubonic Plague" of the 1980s and '90s.

The Federal Center for Disease Control, state and local agencies, hospitals and schools have been fighting the spread of AIDS through the best way they know, education. Not only is much money being spend in AIDS research, there have been megabucks spent to educate people about the disease.

The bad news is that AIDS is still a rapidly spreading fatal disease for which a vaccine has still to be discovered.

Yet the ignorance continues and sometimes kills!

The gay community was the first to institute AIDS hotlines or else to disseminate information on the disease through its previously established Gay Hotlines.

Many in the drug community choose to ignore the ever rising ratios of AIDS incidents among their peers, either because their addiction overrides caution, or because their value on human life is a low one, as shown by their lifestyle.

Hospitals and other agencies are continuing to offer free hypodermic needles, but drug users usually shun this offer, afraid of being caught taking drugs.

At present, Lake County has no lay groups specifically dedicated to AIDS prevention or cure, but the county health department sponsors ongoing support and information groups for those testing positive or diagnosed as having AIDS. The group meets between 7 to 8:30 p.m., every Tuesday for mental health control at the health department.

Emily Bergman, director of communicable diseases for the Lake County Health Dept., and her staff, are not only knowledgeable about the problem, but more than numbers" in Lake County allow for a heavier concentration "on wiping the disease out in the 1990s" as surely as polio bit the dust back in the late 1950s.

The "low numbers" in Lake County don't erase the fact that this is a small world, a very mobile society, and the "high numbers" in the Chicago area live just around the corner.

In western Kenosha County, information can be obtained from the Southeastern Wis. AIDS Project by calling (414)657-644.

More bad news — Though the fastest growing AIDS risk group is made up of women from 25-44, older teenagers are now at greater risk than ever before. We're speaking of the students of the early 1980s that were sexually promiscuous, or on IV drugs. Include in this high risk group, people who received a blood transfusion for medical reasons before 1985.

A video on the life and death of Ryan White, the 15-year old that became nationally known during his fight against the disease he got from a transfusion, has been very successful when shown to school age children. This video is available to schools through area agencies.

All our high schools and elementary schools "do a good job getting specific AIDS information to students through science and PE classes, but these kids are just too promiscuous," said a Kenosha County high school principal.

This has notoriously been the age group that succumbs to the belief that "nothing bad can happen to me, I'm only 16."

Bad and good news — When it comes to the safety of blood transfusions, the Red Cross at a national level, which was exposed a few months ago for laxness in handling blood, is reportedly "cleaning up" that act and taking the proper care in the drawing and storage of uncontaminated blood.

Now all we have to do is convince some of the Doubting Thomases and Scared Sallys that they can start, or continue to give blood to area blood banks because all the precautions are being taken to make

Big event April 2

If you live in an incorporated municipality, there's an election taking place April 2 that is of interest—or should be. Nothing gets community blood churning like a lively campaign. Bi-annual village elections not only select leaders, but the process itself is vital to promoting spirit and identity.

Lake County has 51 municipalities. Each one is conducting an election April 2 as required by statute. A number of communities will be conducting referenda. A great deal is at stake.

We've been struck by the similarity of concerns on the part of both candidates and electors here and elsewhere. Taxes and open space are overriding issues. A great many voters are putting a high priority on services. Hang the cost. There is a basic incongruity between demands for more service and cries of anguish over rising taxes. That's human nature.

It isn't too late to get to know the players if you haven't already done so. The Voters Guide in this week's issue sets the stage. Our editors and reporters have been working overtime to provide information on candidates and issues to help you make an intelligent decision. By long standing policy, this newspaper does not endorse candidates in local elections in the belief that a village election is a family affair. Who's to choose between relatives and friends? Differences are in degree and style.

The countdown has begun for April 2. Our best wishes to all the candidates who so courageously have submitted their credentials and ideas to the electorate.

Letters to the Editor

Candidate misrepresents past Editor:

I am writing in response to campaign signs in our village elections. One of our candidates for village trustee has signs that say "Re-Elect Ed Kozirowski."

As a candidate who is running in this election and who also ran two years ago with Kozirowski, I take offense to his political tactics. Kozirowski was never elected to the office of trustee. He was appointed by Mayor Wilton after losing the election with 454 votes. I was the fourth highest vote getter in that election with 518 votes.

After the election I approached Mayor Elect Wilton to let him know I would like the appointment. I was told that he was appointing Ed Kozirowski because he had supported him in the election and I had not. This was his choice to make and I have no argument with Mayor Wilton.

We do, however, have many new voters in our village who were not living here two years ago when the last election took place and I am insulted that Mr. Kozirowski is trying to pass himself off as something he is not. There is a distinct difference between elected and appointed and the voters have a right to know how he came to office.

Honesty and integrity are the two most needed ingredients to be a Village Trustee. I have tried to base my campaign on these in both elections and I would hope my fellow candidates would do so as well.

O'Hare syndrome spreading Editor:

I find it puzzling that Mark Ratfelders finds it necessary to raise a stink and change the Gurnee status quo.

How can anyone who just two years ago moved into Gurnee and bought a home next to a 13-year-old sewage treatment plant that he states has an odor problem, hope to convince anyone he knows how to do things better?

Could it be he is suffering from O'Hare

Syndrome? It is a well-known malady, move next to something distasteful, but necessary, and then demand it be changed or moved! Gurnee is so poorly run, whatever Mr. Ratfelders possessed you to move here?

Support tax to save Editor:

I do not want to live in a community with dumb kids. Property values, crime on the streets, the economy of neighborhoods, productivity of the local work force, and the future of us all is directly affected by the quality of education. Kids need our support to provide and protect their education.

A draining cycle of, reduced state aid, and increased costs, are eroding education in Round Lake area schools. Yearly cutbacks of services and borrowing have failed to put the budget in balance. An estimated $3,190,000 deficit by June 30, 1991 will continue to grow, threatening more cutbacks and more borrowing.

"Say Yes For Kids" on April 2 the Round Lake Area Schools are asking for an increase in their education fund tax rate. Passage of this referendum by our community is accental.

Linda Molitor, chairman
Citizen's Steering Committee of the Round Lake Schools

Doing what's right Editor:

Joseph Soulak's article about the LHS referendum and the I-RATE activity was informative. While the "Voters give school an F" headline was somewhat overstated, your readers should be grateful for Joe's interesting reporting.

However, Joe writes that I-RATE "apparently did not read the public well" when we supported the LHS referendum. The reality is that many of us doubted if the referendum would pass.

Nonetheless, I-RATE's goal is: "To control property by educating the community and working as partners with taxing bodies to achieve a balance between property taxes and services based on the needs of the community." I-RATE is a "tax watch group," not a "tax watchdog group." The I-RATE Steering Committee will take positions based on the merits of each issue, not based on how we read the public. One large "merit" of this issue was that the School Board lowered the would-have-been impact to the public by at least $14 million after we became involved.

I-RATE's actions will attract people who support our goal, even when they disagree with a specific position that we take. Our membership continues to grow, even after we took our position on the referendum. Meeting our goal will not always be easy, especially for a new, emerging organization. But, it is the right thing to do!

Making wrong school cuts Editor:

Dist. 116 in Round Lake is hitting "below the belt." Proposed reductions still start at the bottom (where it costs the least) and top out with eliminating the position of deputy assistant superintendent.

This looks good on paper, but by paying Cliff Houghton $55,000 to sit at home and consult, the proposed cut seems ineffectual. That $55,000 could help defray the cost of cutting library assistants. The kindergarten through eighth grade libraries are run by these assistants, there is no librarian in these buildings. That cut came about last year.

Newspapers are playing up the cutting of sports and fine arts and are not mentioning library or classroom assistants who work directly with the educational needs of the students.

Mixing facts, opinion Editor:

After persuing Joseph Soulak's sensationalized story on the Libertyville School Board, this reader is constrained to find fault.

One doesn't have to take classes in journalism to appreciate the mission confronting any reporter: facts. A newspaper that puts a story on the top of page one owes an obligation to the readers: facts. Where, in contrast, the expression of editorial opinion is at stake, readers are experienced enough (or should be) to recognize the difference. Typically one finds opinions on the editorial page.

A newspaper disappoints its readers when it masquerades editorial opinion as facts. Soulak's story, beginning with its banner headline, is so larded with his own evaluations of facts (and with a lot of emotion as well) that one has a difficult time reading the story without laughing out loud. If indeed a school board, or a chief of police, or any other public figure, is "arrogant," the facts will tell. Rhetoric in news reporting is the providence of police states, not democracies.

Parent goals explained Editor:

I hope the following comments clarify the purposes of PIE (Parents for Integrity in Education), a group of parents which has appealed to the Grayslake High School board for formation and instatement of specific policies covering curricular and extra-curricular activities. PIE's goal is to encourage the school's commitment to providing the best education possible for students, not only in academics, but also in character development.

These are the provisions which PIE has asked the board to include in the policies, provisions which generally reiterate already existing handbook rules and goals: 1. Vulgarity, profanity, or obscenity is prohibited (because this language is already prohibited by handbook policy), 2. Ridicule or condemnation of race, color, creed, national origin, or age is prohibited (because these are our basic civil rights), 3. Glorifying, encouraging, condoning, or making light of extra or premarital sex, illegal drugs, alcohol, the occult, suicide, violence, or abortion is prohibited (because these are serious problems that are being currently addressed in our community an country), and 4. Respect for family, traditional values, morality, authority, government, teachers, and the establishment is encouraged (because these are what make us a civilized society). We have also asked that plays, books, assignments, or activities be selected in accordance with these provisions.

Political triad miscues Editor:

As the old saying goes, "What goes around, comes around," couldn't be more true in describing what is happening to the Martin-Conners-Herbes political triad. For many months, we have had to endure, as we were forced to read news articles about them, and letters written by them, on themes that seem to be their obsession.

The attitude and disposition of the Martin-Conners-Herbes group has been viscous, negative and self serving, and it reminds me of the campaign that Joe McCarthy undertook in the 50's. He became so obsessed with finding fault and destroying others, that he discredited and destroyed himself. The Illinois Board of Elections may be in the process of giving us a better perspective of this group, that Martin and Conners made faculty campaign disclosures, the offense that they have been accusing so many others of committing.

I don't think Martin's answer to this charge will cut it with the voting public: "The state board of elections obviously is a political office controlled by the Democrats. The long arm of Lake County Democrats may have reached it." Let's hope that the people of Lake County will catch the drift of these rascals, especially with another important primary coming up in a year.

Politically Speaking

DOWN, BUT NOT OUT—

Steve Stiller, the incumbent in The Great Island Lake Trustee Race, said his name may not be on the Tuesday, April 2, ballot, but he is still in the race. His name was removed when his petitions were found to be deficient.

So Stiller is running as a write-in. All he has to do is educate enough people to go the polls, write in his name on the ballot, the office he is seeking, the unit of government, length of service and either draw a box and mark an X inside or punch the ballot.

"What do you think?" one of Stiller's supporters said in reminding me last week his man may be down, but not out.

"He'll make history."

Talking about being down, that's what is happening to the signs of independent Fred Bigham in the three-way race. His are being vandalized while those of the incumbents are virtually untouched.

Bigham doesn't think it is a coincidence.

SOCIAL CLUB?—The Libertyville-Mundelein League of Women Voters is regarded by some people as the club of clubs. Several people on the village board, beginning with Mayor JoAnn Eckmann, are members.

Others say it is a do-good social club. Occasional studies have been done on recycling, the township open space program and general assistance. They are busy-work studies publicized in the group's newsletter for the edification of members.

This month the league had its hands full. There was what was called a State of the Community dinner. It's to be an annual event. About 80 people showed at the first one to hear the aide to state Rep. Virginia Fiester Frederick (R-Lake Forest) instead of the boss herself, Cranston Byrd (Who?) of the Lake County Planning, Zoning and Environmental Quality Dept., Supt. of Schools Sybil Yastrow and Det. Portia Wallace of the Lake County Sheriff's Dept.

More of those attending thought the people planning the program would have done much better and drawn a bigger crowd. The committee included mayors JoAnn Eckmann of Libertyville and Marilyn Sindles of Mundelein. They would have told it like it is.

This was followed a few nights later with a forum for Libertyville trustee candidates in the April election. Forty-seven people tried to fill the huge studio theater at the high school. There were 12 league members and, mostly, family and friends of the candidates.

What will the league do for an encore?

POLITICAL LOTTERY—A n interesting election is coming up in Grayslake. People there take politics seriously, too. It's the hometown of such political luminaries as past County Board Chairman Norman Geary and retired crusty Mayor Edwin Schroeder.

Running for three trustee openings are incumbent Robert Russell and newcomers Tim Rafferty and Barbara Bacsa. They are not listed as a party on the ballot, but are an admitted slate.

Among their backers is the Grayslake First Committee, an old election party. It has spent $1,000 on mailings and printing for the slate.

Among the movers and shakers of this party is a couple whose family is seeking rezoning of R-1 residential property to commercial near Rtes. 45 and 120. The village zoning board has recommended approval.

I've been told the land is in the right of way of the future relocated Rte. 120. Only two years ago the Grayslake village board anxiously approved a similar rezoning. The resulting beneficiary almost became an overnight millionaire when the Illinois Dept. of Transportation decided the land was needed for the new Rte. 120.

Sounds better than winning the Illinois lottery.

GOOD, BAD NEWS—"No news is good news," Avon Twp. Road Commissioner Pat Anderson is fond of saying about lack of mention in this column.

So what's the good news? He's still doing the job to which he was elected.

The bad news? There isn't any.

TOUGH TALK—Former Libertyville Twp. supervisor and County Board member F.T. "Mike" Graham is still full of challenges.

He smarts every time his name appears in print next to that of Jack Martin and Pat Connors. Graham's two political adversaries are largely responsible for his 1990 political retirement after 17 years in county government.

"Print this word for word,"

Graham said in an angry telephone call to me last week following another broadside from Connors.

"Martin and Connors are promoting their own political agenda in Libertyville Twp.," Graham said about the candidates the two support. Two years ago they put Ralph Swank into the township hall as supervisor. This Spring they are trying to get three candidates elected to the village board.

"If these two had the courage they would run for office themselves," Graham said. "They should get on the political playing field and find out how ugly it can be. But they won't. They're political cowards."

Enough said?

land. There is no question that we need a senior citizen center. Libertyville, Mundelein, Vernon Hills and the Park and Recreation Dist. will obviously approve of the proposed senior center simply because they do not have the funds and the need is real.

We could also use a youth center, a shelter for the homeless, and low cost housing for the poor in Libertyville Twp. There are many worthy social causes that with infinite resources we could solve. Which of these would you pursue next? The district's open space land and money will long be a target because of the ever-diminishing funds and available land in the county. Most recently, the district considered and declined a proposal to build a fire station on open space land.

Jack Marting, our behind-the-scenes politician, stated "The open-space plan as presented so far hasn't provided the public with any active benefits." I strongly disagree. The open space plan has provided the public with exactly what they voted for, land, in its natural state. Although the current township board has not pursued as aggressively the purchase of land as our past board, they have proceeded with the purchase of several properties.

This is exactly as the voters intended. I urge officials to abort the plan utilizing open space money and land for building a senior/recreation center and encourage them to pursue alternate sites and sources of funding. Building a senior/recreation center was not in the intent of the Open Space referendum nor the reason I supported it.

Understand objectors

Editor:

In her March 1 column, Virginia Park began a reasoned and concise explanation of our Constitutional guarantee of freedom of speech. Her examples, and suggestions provide valuable information to the uninformed. However, I must firmly disagree with her final statement.

"...it is not right to destroy our precious heritage with bad manners or by breaking the law," she wrote. This comment undermined the rest of her message. We would have no democracy if George Washington, Benjamin Franklin and Thomas Jefferson had been concerned about "bad manners" or scrupulous observance of the law. Virginia Park, I'd like you to meet Rosa Parks, whose refusal to change seats on a bus (thus breaking the law) was a catalyst for the Civil Rights movement that brought an end to many discriminatory and unjust laws.

Our heritage will not be destroyed by bad manners or illegal actions. It is in far greater danger from mindless obedience and hypocritical behavior. I have more concern about what motivates a person, and their willingness to accept what motivates a person, and their willingness to accept the consequences of their behavior, than I have about how closely they followed the strictures of Emily Post. I am more concerned about the nature of the law they challenge than I am about their refusal to obey it. If they are willing to face the social and legal consequences of unacceptable behavior, in support of a principle; and if they are willing to accept my right to life and a differing opinion, I can only admire, if not understand them.

Time to build school

Editor:

On April 2 high school Dist. 117, comprising enrollment from the villages of Antioch, Lake Villa, and Lindenhurst will hold a referendum to raise money to build a new high school.

Our three communities have seen rapid growth in the last decade and the current level of development shows no slow down in the near future. Current class size in the feeder schools bear this out. For a time the philosophy of restricted access to curriculum may help to reduce the over crowding we now experience, but renewed ability to carry five classes utilizes the facility to about 93 percent capacity. Class size, resource areas and faculty offices are cramped, congested, and limited. I want my children and the children of this community to be on equal standards with students from the Lake and McHenry county area. Sound academic achievement is vital in today's society.

A new facility will reduce the current level of overcrowding now and for some time into the future. The proposed site is twice as large as our present campus. The proposed new building can be built to adequately adapt to additions if needed in the future. The old school can be leased to the area schools that have similar space needs. The cost of retrofitting the old building need not be incurred.

I feel we have a duty to our children to provide sound education. That education begins and extends from the home. Our schools should mirror our homes. As a family increases in size we add on, as the children grow we buy a bigger home. Our need for a new facility is just this type of growth. We have added on, now we need to move to a bigger home.

Habitat promises to provide art's desire

by GREG MILLER
Lakeland Newspapers

Picture this.

•Over 900 art prints and posters on display and a total of over 3,000 available, with 80 different frame samples and 65 varieties of matting.

•Every window treatment and type of wallpaper imaginable.

•Hundreds of fabric alternatives.

•All this offered at competitive prices by a well-trained and knowledgeable staff.

If the above sounds like a decorator's dream, it's because there's a method to the merchandising at Habitat Wallpaper & Blinds, a new store on Rte. 12 (just south of Lake Zurich in the new Deerpath Court shopping center).

Although Lake Zurich's Habitat — which opened Jan. 12 — is the sixth outlet in a relatively new Chicagoland chain, manager Lora Lutz said her store is a one-of-a-kind place.

"We're the only store with an actual Habitat Gallery," Lutz said. "The others offer art but nothing as elaborate as this."

The Habitat Gallery features over 900 art prints and posters in seven different categories: contemporary, fine arts, children's, lifestyles, country, scenic and photography. An additional 2,000 art prints and posters can be seen and ordered through catalogues.

An added feature is the biographical sketch of the artist and information about the work that hangs next to each print.

After you've picked your art's desire, 80 frame and 65 matting schemes are available. The average price of professionally framed and matted art work is $79-159. The art can also be purchased without framing and matting.

"I feel that at Habitat we offer museum-quality matting and framing at about

'Habitat offers a very good training program for its employees, so that the customer can feel confident working with them. We have very knowledgeable sales people.' — Lora Lutz

50 percent less than what you'd pay in the mall," Lutz said.

Framed art will be delivered to your door, Lutz added.

Before you hang that art on the wall, however, you may want to cover those walls. Habitat can be a huge help there, too. The multitude of wallpaper varieties offered include traditional, string, grass-cloth, hand-printed and vinyls for kitchens and baths.

"All of our wallpaper is categorized to make it more convenient for the customer," Lutz said. "You can almost custom-design your own wallpaper."

In the see-or-not-to-see department, Habitat offers "all major manufacturers of quality window treatments," Lutz said.

Those treatments include roller shades, pleated shades, wooden blinds, shutters, draperies and blinds (Plantation, mini and micro in fabric, aluminum or extra-rugged steel).

Lutz said a plus at Habitat is that customers can have their choice of fabric laminated or inserted on vertical blinds.

"That's something other places don't offer," Lutz said.

Habitat offers "100's of fabrics to choose from for bedspreads, shower curtains, bed skirts, table linens and pillows," Lutz said.

But great merchandise can gather dust without the right brand of people presenting it.

Lutz studied interior design at the International Academy of Merchandising and Design in Chicago and has experience in everything from manufacturing to retailing. She spent two-and-a-half years working at the Habitat stores in Lombard and Naperville.

"Habitat offers a very good training program for its employees, so that the Lutz said she has 13 people working at her store, and although it wasn't an absolute requirement, all of them have a "flair for decorating and colors."

Lutz said at each employee meeting, a couple of artists and their works are discussed so the salesperson can further help the customer.

"We offer quality products at excellent prices," Lutz said. "Our sales staff is friendly, courteous, professional and knowledgeable."

"Our stores are a lot more inviting. From my own experience, competitors

"I feel that overall, we have a much

Interesting income investments available for retirement

There are many couples around the age of 45 or 50 that look ahead and recognize that the benefits they are expecting to be provided by their social security and company retirement plans will not be sufficient to meet their retirement income needs.

Realizing they are going to have to make up the short-fall themselves, they investigate the whole range of investment alternatives through which they may augment their income. They look into annuities, corporate, government and municipal bonds, mutual funds of all kinds, certificates of deposit, limited partnerships, savings accounts. The list goes on.

All (or nearly all) of these investment alternatives may be properly included in their investment portfolio, after accounting for their risk tolerances and their specific investment objectives.

Here's another "investment" that ought to be considered. Some of its characteristics:

— Its values grow tax deferred.

— When it is converted to retirement income, the investors get all of their money back first, tax free. Any additional withdrawals are taxed as ordinary income.

— The Internal Revenue Service cannot require income withdrawals from the vehicle, determine the amounts which must be taken or levy penalties of any kind if the funds remain untouched.

control over the investment at any time, as with any other form of property for the purposes of achieving estate planning objectives.

This way to wealth

— If money is never taken out of the investment, its equity, plus additional amounts, are passed to the next generation income tax and, under certain circumstances, estate tax free.

— Depending upon the desires of the investors, they can retain or give up

Though there are a number of other features which enhance the value and flexibility of this investment vehicle, the real issue is: What kind of investment returns does it offer.

Depending upon the issuer, the returns should fall into the eight to nine percent range. A large part of these returns are guaranteed; the balance will fluctuate with the general market.

An example of its effectiveness might be illuminating. A fifty year old couple puts aside $25,000 per year for fifteen years. At age sixty-five, they withdraw over $55,000 per year for the rest of their lives. For almost seven years this amount is tax free. When they die, approximately one and on quarter million dollars will be distributed to their heirs or whoever they want.

This investment vehicle is available to virtually everyone. It does not have unrealistically high minimum investments. It produces security and excellent returns. What is it? A survivorship whole life insurance policy. Look into one. It might just meet your investment needs.

Has your heart had its 39,000 mile checkup?

Now a thorough heart screening is just $39.

If you're like most people, you'll walk about 1,000 miles each year. Those miles can add up. That's why it's wise to take steps to protect your heart — especially if you're 39 or older, or have a family history of heart disease.

To help get you headed in the right direction, the Heart Center of Lake County located at Saint Therese Medical Center is offering a thorough heart screening for just $39. Designed to identify your cardiac risk factors, this screening includes:

- Heart Fitness Test
- HDL and LDL cholesterol
- Total cholesterol/HDL ratio
- Total blood cholesterol
- Blood pressure
- Triglyceride level
- Cardiac risk factor analysis

It's important to know the condition of your heart. By having this screening, you're taking great strides towards finding out just how healthy your heart really is. To make an appointment or for more information, please call (708) 360-2772.

ISN'T IT TIME for Jesus?

Ever feel stress or depression is overwhelming you? Many people do.

The Good news is: THERE IS HOPE...His name is JESUS, and He can help you overcome the problems you're facing and bring peace and happiness back into your life.

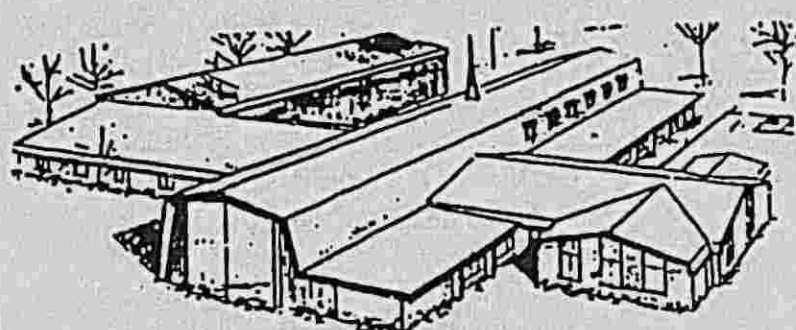

If you've tried everything, and have found no answer, we simply ask: "ISN'T IT TIME FOR JESUS?"

CLC attracts baseball stars back to Lake County

by STEVE PETERSON
Lakeland Newspapers

Yes, you can go home again.

Even if you are a star player for your high school baseball team, things may change come college time. Instead of being penciled into the starting lineup, you may find yourself riding the end of the bench as juniors and seniors dominate the roster.

A handful of College of Lake County baseball players found themselves in those or similar conditions last year and found their way back to CLC. Now, they hope to contribute on a team which finished third in the state last year.

"I keep track of them for about a year after they graduate," CLC Coach Gene Hanson said. "If they go away and do well, fine, but sometimes they are looking for a place to play. They also know if they play hard, they can get a scholarship."

That's just what happened for seven of last year's CLC graduates, who helped earn the school a Skyway Conference title and the first 40-win season.

Maurice Austin, a pitcher, comes to CLC from Oakton; Mark Misiek, a second baseman and a Grant High School graduate, comes to CLC from Evansville, Jim Neumann, a second baseman from Grayslake, comes to CLC from Aurora University and George Liebert, a centerfielder from Zion, comes to CLC from a Kansas junior college.

Sophomores on the squad include first baseman Jared Fogel, an Antioch graduate who hit .338 as a designated hitter last year; Dan Grote, a right-handed pitcher from Antioch; Mike Bablo, a right-handed pitcher from Antioch; lefty Joe Uremovich from Lake Forest; Grant graduate pitcher Jeff Pett and Johnsburg graduate and pitcher Tony Weber. Pett was 2-2 with two complete games and Weber 1-0 last year.

Paul Sanchez, a Warren graduate, returns as the to call the signals for the staff as a sophomore catcher.

The Lancers are also counting on graduates who starred for area teams last spring to come through. They include Carmel graduate Jim Cooney. Cooney, a right-handed pitcher and left fielder, did not lose a game in his pitching career at CHS as he helped the Corsairs qualify for the Elite Eight last June.

Rex Eaman, a Stevenson

High School graduate, is a right handed pitcher as well.

"I have a lot of confidence in Rex. He will be counted on heavily," Hanson said.

Mark LeGrand, a first baseman from Stevenson, Dan Changelon, a third baseman from Lake Zurich; Keith Krause, a catcher from Round Lake; Mark Walker, a left-handed pitcher from Carmel; Scott Lidskin, a pitcher from Highland Park and Tim Graeb, a pitcher from Libertyville, are all newcomers.

Shawn Stanek transferred to CLC during basketball season.

ACHS hopes baseball seasons brings success

Enough is enough.
No more 4-28 records, no more last place finishes in the North Suburban Conference. No more early exits from the regional tournaments.

To that end, Antioch baseball Coach Greg Decker spent the off-season at seminars, at chalk talks and in general beefing up his knowledge of the game.

"Our goal for 1991 is to be more competitive in the NSC," Decker said as the new season unfolded.

"We have changed our whole style of batting," Decker said.

The Sequoits have been confined to inside workouts for most of the pre-season, and already have had a game cancelled due to poor weather. An ambitious scheduler had the Antioch team facing Chicago Christian in a doubleheader March 16.

Five starters are back from last year's team, but Decker will also be counting on 11 juniors. "We'll be pretty young this year," Decker said.

Senior Ken Paddock returns at first base, while Dan Pappadakis is also back and could be one of the team's top hitters.

Steve Manderscheid, who also plays basketball, is back at shortstop while Keith Depperschmidt, a right-handed pitcher, also catches.

Craig Hannrehan is hoping to recover from a knee injury suffered just before last season started. A soccer player, he is expected to play third for Antioch.

Pitching could be a strong suit for Antioch this spring. "I'm probably deeper on the mound than I ever have been. We're not going to blow anyone away but we're accurate."

Junior Keith Lindbloom, who figured in three of the four Antioch wins last year, returns. Scott Lucadlo, a junior and Tony Chesla, a right hander, round off the starting rotation.

Brian Letzia and Pappadakis are relief pitchers.

Jason Ferris, who played in seven varsity games as a freshman, is back at shortstop.

As far as the NSC race is concerned, The Sequoits' early-season schedule includes a March 26 game at Wauconda, March 30 against Waukegan and April 2 at Carmel. Waukegan was in the regional final before losing to Carmel last year while Wauconda won a Class A regional. The Corsairs qualified for the Elite Eight.

Sequoits netters to have international look in '91

Antioch High School's boys tennis team may have to gain success the old fashioned way this spring.

That is, earn it. "We're not as talented as we were last year, so we will have to work harder to get the brakes," Antioch Coach Frank Cittadino said.

The Sequoits do have eight lettermen back from last year's team which finished 10-8 overall, 4-3 in the North Suburban Conference.

Cittadino is counting on seniors Scott Hammack at first singles and doubles, Jason Masek at singles and doubles and Dan Schinler at doubles or third singles as his top returnees.

Cittadino's son, Scott, is also back as a junior.

Two players who did not see much playing time last year have made improvements. They are seniors Craig MacAvoy and Matt Miller.

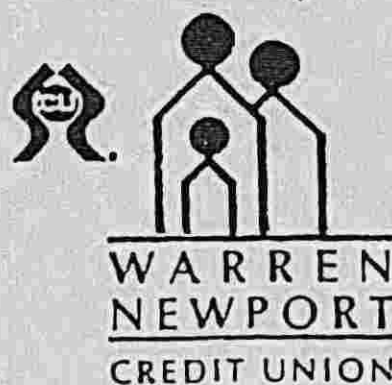

The team has an international flavor to it as Per Forsberg, a foreign exchange student from Sweden, is on the roster.

"We're predominantly a senior team," Cittadino said.

As far as this year's North Suburban Conference race is concerned, Cittadino projects the usual favorites - Stevenson, Libertyville and Lake Forest to be joined in the top half by Niles North.

Rams hope versatility will lead to NWSC contention

When it comes to penciling in pitching and catching combinations this spring, some familiar names could be inserted into the Grayslake Rams lineup.

"We try to stay away from it, but they have both done it successfully," Grayslake Coach Larry Martin said.

The Rams are hoping to unseat defending Northwest Suburban Conference and regional champ Wauconda and have six starters back from last year's team which finished with an 8-6 conference record for third place. The Rams, after a slow start, finished 9-16 on the year.

Dennis Grube, an all-conference pick at catcher, returns as well as senior pitcher Matt Johnson. Taylor and Scott Schupp are two sophomores back for the pitching staff. Both found success in youth baseball with the Grayslake Mohawk team of 1986.

As for experience, Martin looks to senior third baseman Ken Kerns, outfielder-second baseman Chris Ramel and first baseman Nathan Roberts.

Martin is in his second year at the helm of Grayslake baseball, after taking over after Jim Hass passed away.

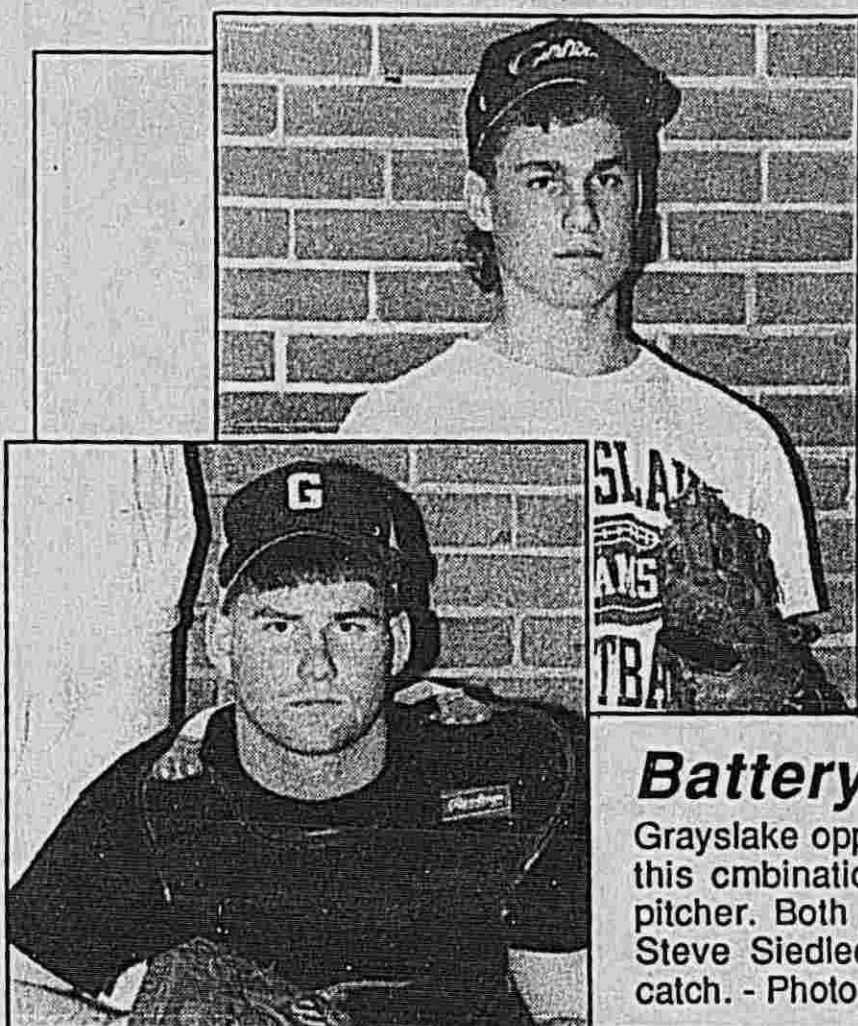

"We're hoping we can contend if our pitching matches up," Martin said.

He said the pre-season has gone much smoother this year than last, when the Rams had Mike Leubke and several question marks.

Joe Vasvrik could help the Rams' pitching staff.

Martin, who is assisted by hitting instructor Tom Wittum, predicted Round Lake, Lake Zurich and Wauconda to be the teams to beat in the NWSC.

And maybe, with the right combinations, the Rams will be right up there as well.

Durbin to help NIU tennis

Libertyville High School graduate Dustin Dorbin is a member of the men's tennis team at Northern Illinois University.

The Huskies are coached by second-year mentor Chuck Merzbacher and is coming off a 7-6 record. The first home meet in DeKalb is March 23

Battery combo

Grayslake opponents will see a lot of this combination either at catcher or pitcher. Both Steve Taylor (top) and Steve Siedlecki can both pitch and catch. - Photo by Joe Shuman.

Experienced Bulldogs take aim at NWSC title

It can apply to any sport.

What's the best thing about sophomores? They become juniors. And the next year, what's the best thing about juniors? They become seniors.

Such is the case for the Grant baseball team this spring. The Bulldogs are a senior dominated team and are hoping that experience will help them contend for the Northwest Suburban Conference crown.

"We have a lot of seniors and that makes it a lot easier this year. It will be up to the seniors," Grant

Coach Fritz Kazlauskis said.

The Bulldogs were 10-14 last year, 8-6 in the NWSC.

Pitchers Joe Gorski and Ray Baker along with outfielders Josh VonBrickeinheim, Curt Nielsen and Toby Harris return.

All-NWSC pick rick Twarowski is back, along with third.

Tom Krob gives the Bulldogs some rare skills of a three-position player: third, first and catcher. "He went to quite a few baseball camps this summer," Kazlauskis said.

Chris Alex is back at catcher for Grant.

The starting pitchers are expected to be Jason Amedio, Twarowski, Baker, Mike Penkowski and Shane Webb. Joe Gorski is expected to be the top relief pitcher.

The Bulldogs, as always, have a rough few days to open the season. Weather permitting, Grant faces state qualifier Carmel March 28, then sectional finalist Waukegan April 1. The NWSC opener is home against rival Round Lake April 3.

Spring Sports Spectacular

Rams hope versatility will lead to NWSC contention

When it comes to penciling in pitching and catching combinations this spring, some familiar names could be inserted into the Grayslake Rams lineup.

"We try to stay away

from it, but they have both done it successfully," Grayslake Coach Larry Martin said.

The Rams are hoping to unseat defending Northwest Suburban Conference and regional champ Wauconda and have six starters back from last year's team which finished with an 8-6 conference record for third place. The Rams, after a slow start, finished 9-16 on the year.

Dennis Grube, an all-conference pick at catcher, returns as well as senior pitcher Matt Johnson.

Taylor and Scott Schupp

are two sophomores back for the pitching staff. Both found success in youth baseball with the Grayslake Mohawk team of 1986.

As for experience, Martin looks to senior third baseman Ken Kerns, outfielder-second baseman Chris Ramel and first baseman Nathan Roberts.

Martin is in his second year at the helm of Grayslake baseball, after taking over after Jim Hass passed away.

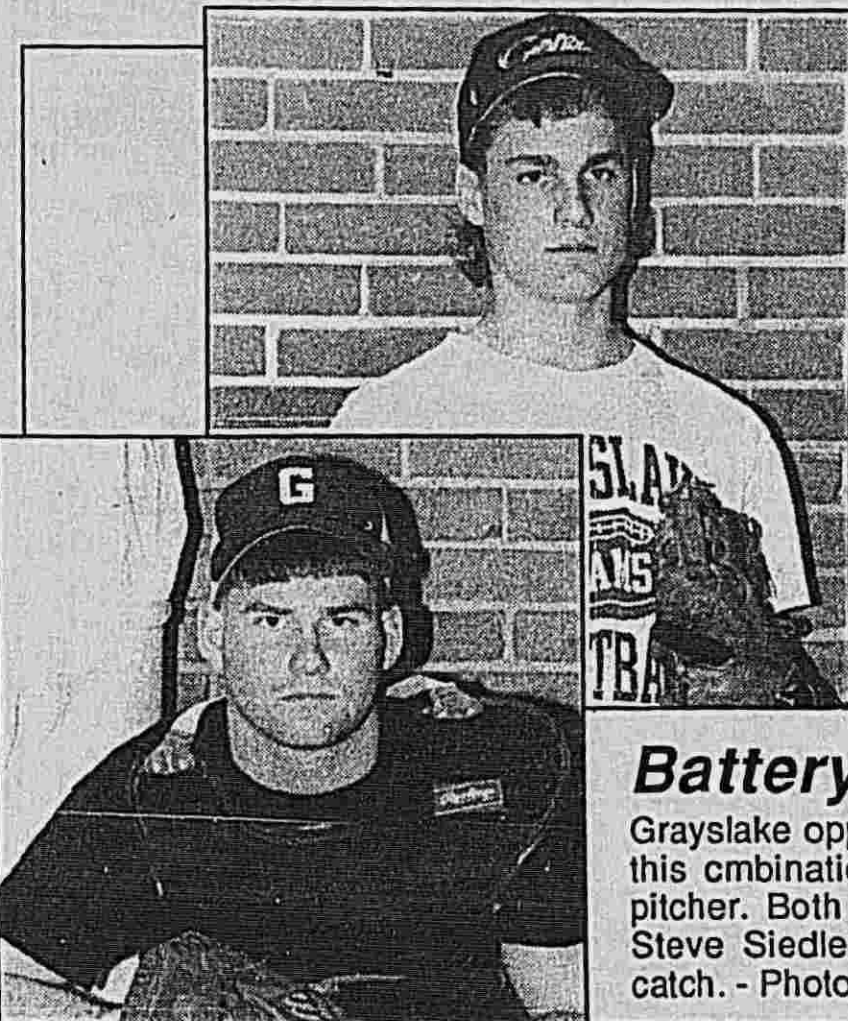

"We're hoping we can contend if our pitching matches up," Martin said.

He said the pre-season has gone much smoother this year than last, when the Rams had Mike Leubke and several question marks.

Joe Vasvrik could help the Rams' pitching staff.

Martin, who is assisted by hitting instructor Tom Wittum, predicted Round Lake, Lake Zurich and Wauconda to be the teams to beat in the NWSC.

And maybe, with the right combinations, the Rams will be right up there as well.

Durbin to help NIU tennis

Libertyville High School graduate Dustin Dorbin is a member of the men's tennis team at Northern Illinois University.

The Huskies are coached by second-year mentor Chuck Merzbacher and is coming off a 7-6 record. The first home meet in DeKalb is March 23

Battery combo

Grayslake opponents will see a lot of this combination either at catcher or pitcher. Both Steve Taylor (top) and Steve Siedlecki can both pitch and catch. - Photo by Joe Shuman.

Experienced Bulldogs take aim at NWSC title

It can apply to any sport. What's the best thing about sophomores? They become juniors. And the next year, what's the best thing about juniors? They become seniors.

Such is the case for the Grant baseball team this spring. The Bulldogs are a senior dominated team and are hoping that experience will help them contend for the Northwest Suburban Conference crown.

"We have a lot of seniors and that makes it a lot easier this year. It will be up to the seniors," Grant

Coach Fritz Kazlauskis said.

The Bulldogs were 10-14 last year, 8-6 in the NWSC.

Pitchers Joe Gorski and Ray Baker along with outfielders Josh VonBrickeinheim, Curt Nielsen and Toby Harris return.

All-NWSC pick rick Twarowski is back, along with third.

Tom Krob gives the Bulldogs some rare skills of a three-position player: third, first and catcher. "He went to quite a few baseball camps this summer," Kazlauskis said.

Chris Alex is back at catcher for Grant.

The starting pitchers are expected to be Jason Amedio, Twarowski, Baker, Mike Penkowski and Shane Webb. Joe Gorski is expected to be the top relief pitcher.

The Bulldogs, as always, have a rough few days to open the season. Weather permitting, Grant faces state qualifier Carmel March 28, then sectional finalist Waukegan April 1. The NWSC opener is home against rival Round Lake April 3.

Name nine winners of Easter coloring contest

With Easter almost upon us, Lakeland Newspaper's Easter celebration, the Easter Bunny Coloring Contest, is over and the winners have been chosen.

Five hundred entries were judged by Lakeland staff members and the original one prize in each age group was raised to three because of the large amount of entries. First prize in each category was $25, second, $15, and third, $10.

Lakeland Publisher William Schroeder said, "We had an unprecedented amount of entries and we're only sorry that we couldn't recognize all the hard work done by all the children who took part."

In the age group of four to six year olds, first place carrying a $25 prize with it, went to Elizabeth Adamski of Kildeer.

Second place prize of $15 went to Jennifer Desens of Wauconda and third place, $10, was won by Michael Lecinski of Barrington.

In the seven to nine year old category, first place went to Greg Johnson, Spring Grove; second place to Amy Garberding of Grayslake and the third place prize winner was Heather Barthel of Spring Grove.

The oldest age group was made-up of children 10 to 12 years old. First place went to Michael Chung of Barrington. Second place winner is Mandy Wilke, Antioch and Becky Andrews, Spring Grove, wins the $10 third prize.

Lakehurst hosts Easter Parade

Lakehurst Mall will host its third Annual Great Easter Parade on Tuesday, March 26. This very popular and growing event will begin at 10 a.m. and last approximately one hour.

The Easter Bunny will lead the parade as children (pre-school through third grade) march through the Mall collecting treats from participating Lakehurst merchants. These treats can be put in Easter bags provided by Lakehurst Mall, or the children may bring their own homemade Easter baskets.

This will be a great opportunity for parents and grandparents to preserve a very special childhood moment. The parade is open to the public and there is no participation fee.

Lakehurst Mall is located east of the Tri-State Tollway at Routes 120 and 43 in Waukegan, IL. For more information call (708)473-0234.

Music students rate superior

Cheap Airfares What's the Catch?

by JIM WARNKEN, PRESIDENT
NORTH STAR TRAVEL, INC.

You're driving home from work and the voice on the radio announces "$79 to most major Florida cities!" You immediately call your travel agent and say you want to go to Miami tomorrow. You are given a price of $645! What's the catch?

It's that part about "some restrictions apply" and "seats are limited" that is left up to your travel agent to explain.

Also confusing is that airlines are allowed to advertise a price which is actually 1/2 of what you're going to pay. I.E. "prices are for one way travel based upon a round trip ticket." You can't actually buy a one way ticket for the advertised price.

Let's tackle the "seats are limited" problem first.

An airline needs to sell only one seat on a plane at the advertised price to stay within the law. Just how many seats it really does sell varies greatly and can change literally minute by minute depending not only how well a certain flight is selling, but how many seats the competition has left on a similar flight.

Now let's get to those "restrictions."

These can vary greatly depending on when and where you are flying. Two of the most common, though, are you must stay over a Saturday night and you must book at least 14 days in advance. If you are traveling during a busy time or to a popular city, forget about the 14 day advance, since all the low priced seats will be sold out long before then.

When you travel can also be a factor. Midweek travel is cheaper to some cities, while weekend travel is less to others. Traveling to Florida is less on Sunday to Wednesday but you must return on a Tuesday through Friday to get the best fare.

Most all low price tickets are also non-refundable and non-changeable, so be sure of your dates before you get those tickets. About the only exception is in the case of illness, or death of a close relative, but each case is at the discretion of the airline.

Final advice. Book early, have alternate dates in mind, and be understanding of your travel agent.

Lake Forest Symphony takes over youth contest

The North Suburban Symphony of Lake Forest is now receiving requests for applications for its Youth Artists Music Competition. Instrumental and keyboard soloists of high school age, freshman through senior years, may apply.

They must reside in or study with a teacher who teaches in Lake County or North Suburban Cook County.

Inquiries should be made to the Competition Chairman, James Glacking, at (708)362-0472. Finalists will be required to perform at 7:30 p.m. on Friday, May 31 in the Studio Theatre of Libertyville High School.

The Liberty-Fremont Concert Society, based in Libertyville, founded the Young Artists Music Competition during its 1984-85 season. In 1988 the board of directors of the society created the post of competition chairman. James R. Glacking of Libertyville was appointed chairman, and served in that capacity for the remaining three years of the society's existence. The society, unfortunately, was dissolved at the close of the 1989-90 season.

This year the management of the competition has been assumed by the North Suburban Symphony of Lake Forest. This is the first venture into the competition of field by the symphony; and it is being entered with much enthusiasm.

To make the transition a smooth one, the Liberty-Fremont Concert Society has generously provided partial funding from its remaining assets.

Glacking continues in the post of competition chairman. A committee of symphony board members, composed of Sally Bowers of Winnetka, Ann Bowen, and Carol Ver Meulen, both of Lake Forest, will assist him in planning and organizing the event.

Contestants complete and application form, submit a cassette tape of their performances, and pay an entry fee of $15. These items are to be delivered to the chairman by Monday, April 22.

A screening committee selects the finalists; and the general committee will then set up the competition concert. Each finalist is allowed to choose his or her selections.

There is no established repertoire list. Evaluation of her performance of each finalist will be determined by a panel of judges. Prizes will be awarded at the conclusion of the competition concert on Friday, May 31.

Kirk Players 'imagining'

"An Act of the Imagination," the Kirk Players latest production, concerns a rather dull but extremely successful mystery writer whose latest work has strangely turned to a romance, a very, very vivid and adulterous romance.

The author of this mystery, Bernard Slade, spend many years as an actor before embarking on a writing career. Some of his other works include: "Same Time Next Year," "Tribute," and "Fatal Attraction."

The cast includes the father and son team of John and Jon Leslie Lynn in the father and son roles of Arthur and Simon Putnam, and the pair are also sharing the directing task.

Adding a lot of additional talent to the stage are Mary Jo Pippenger as Arthur's wife Julia, Floyd Baker as the police Sergeant, Angela Gregory as an assistant editor of the publishing house, Wendi Lynn as a petty blackmailer, and Paula Willems as a minor diplomat's wife. Holding it all together backstage will be Shiela Bourque.

ASK-A-NURSE BRINGS YOU THE WONDERS OF MODERN MEDICINE.

Ahh, the wonders of modern medicine. You wonder whether you're taking the right vitamins. Whether laser surgery could take care of that mole. How you can prevent a stroke. One thing you don't have to worry about, though, is where to get reliable information about your health. The answer to that is Ask-A-Nurse.

Ask-A-Nurse is a free, 24-hour health care information and referral service staffed by registered nurses. If you need a doctor, Ask-A-Nurse can help. If you need a home health nurse, an exercise class or just a listening ear, Ask-A-Nurse can help. So for health care questions, call Ask-A-Nurse. You'll wonder how you ever got along without us.

Clinging to illusions takes toll in 'M. Butterfly'

by TOM WITOM

Clinging to one's delusions, like everything else in life, can extract a terrible toll.

And David Hwang's Tony Award winning Broadway play "M. Butterfly," during a two-week engagement at the Chicago Theater, does a bang-up job quantifying the price, at least insofar as it was levied against the shy Frenchman who figures as the lead in this bizarre tale grounded in fact.

"M. Butterfly" recounts a 20-year love affair between a married French diplomat in China during the 1960s Vietnam War and the "woman of his dreams" whose true preference for the illusory is perverse.

A. Mapa performs convincingly ("It takes a man to know what a man wants") in his impersonation of the overly modest Song Liling, a Peking Opera star who met his/her lover after performing in Puccini's "Madame Butterfly."

When he unmasks his real identity, stripping off makeup, wig and clothing in front of the knowing audience, it's still a shocking transformation.

The lighting and set design, mounted in swaths of red and black lacquered paneling and a sloping back runway, are stunning.

identity as both a man and a government spy is revealed after two decades.

Philip Anglim, as Gallimard, the naive lover, ultimately refused to accept the truth of the situation ("You shared with me your true self; I loved a lie," he moans). His

LANETT (400-19)
By Landmark Designs, Inc.

OVERALL DIMENSIONS: 87'-6" X 54'-0"
LIVING: 2488 square feet
GARAGE: 639 square feet

The sprawling country-style Lanett is equally well-adapted to meeting the needs of a family with older children, or empty nesters that like to keep space available for grandchildren and other guests.

Placement of the master suite on the main floor provides privacy while the kids are still at home, and allows the homeowners to confine their living to the ground floor after the kids move on.

And what a sumptuous master suite it is. Luxuries include a long, L-shaped walk-in closet, a private spa, an oversized shower and double vanities. The sleeping area is easily large enough to accommodate a desk and a couple of easy chairs, in addition to a queen or king-size bed.

A vaulted ceiling adds to the sense of overall spaciousness that pervades the rambling family room/nook/kitchen combination. A U-shaped open stairway juts out into the room, providing a perfect vantage point for viewing the scene below, or making important announcements. Place a wide-screen television on a swivel here, and it can be viewed from anywhere in the room.

The open space beneath the mid-flight landing is open. Shelving it would create an attractive display area for family treasures.

The open kitchen is roomy enough for multiple cooks to combine efforts without getting in each other's way. A vegetable sink is located in the work island, a large walk-in pantry is off to the side, and a utility room with built-in ironing board is but a few steps away.

For a study plan of the LANETT (400-19), send $7.50 to Landmark Design, P.O. Box 2307, Eugene, OR 97402. (Be sure to specify plan name & number when ordering.) Designers, Architects and readers with plans they would like to see featured also are invited to contact Landmark.

Your Horoscope by Charles King Cooper

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) New ideas come through travel. An urge for adventure leads to romance and interesting times. You're in the driver's seat. You'll receive the financial backing you need. Begin projects now for quick completion.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) The more you learn about a person, the more fascinating she or he becomes in your eyes. Togetherness is definitely the theme. A new idea stimulates you to extra work now. Don't be careless about health.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) You're in the mood for a different form of recreation now. You can safely take the initiative in romance, but watch overdoing. Some tackle long-neglected chores now.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) It's a week of spirited conversations with friends. You may be a guest at a club function. You express yourself well now. Philosophically you're animated and may investigate a new course of study.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) You're fired up with new ideas about getting ahead in life. Sheer drive combined with luck means extra income forthcoming. You're busy with a project begun last week.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) You're inclined to burn the candle at both ends now. You'll certainly have entertaining times, but don't push beyond your limits. Business developments are still in your favor. More assertive than usual, you'll move straight toward your career goals.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) You have a sixth sense now, and you know where opportunity lies. Concentration on career pays dividends. The spiritual side of you is to the fore, though you'll also have time for recreation.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) A family member helps you out in some way. You're anxious to complete a work project and may devote extra time to it now. A special outing tops off a week in which you find yourself closer to someone you love.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) You may discard some possessions. Intuitive prompting bring work developments. Seek ways to improve overall income. The romantic theme continues for you. An ability to work without break abets creative accomplishments.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) You'll gain insight into a family member's problem. Recreation at home base suits you fine now. Purchases are likely. Compassion for others is marked now. You enjoy yourself at a luncheon.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) A flea market sale may bring you an unusual item. Increased determination is directed now toward your career. Some of you are feeling more creative than usual. Investigate courses tap your inner potential.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) You'll help others out in a quite unassuming way. Spare time may be devoted to a career endeavor. You shine socially now. Be sure to accept invitations for fun times. A relationship with a close tie continues to grow strongly.

'Cats' enjoy some fun at expense of state powers

by STEVE PETERSON
Lakeland Newspapers

Perhaps Andy Bauer summed it up best. "We'll remember the fun we had," he said moments after Libertyville had lost a thrilling 67-65 contest for third place in the Class AA State tournament.

Indeed, the Wildcats do have some fun memories to recall in addition to the shiny, new, fourth place trophy on display at Libertyville High School. The Wildcats ended a brilliant tournament run and a 25-8 season by taking the eventual state champs to the final seconds and losing the third-place game to Chicago Marshall on a buzzer-beater.

The Wildcats played eight quarters in a span of less than 12 hours against some of the best competition in the state, but that did not slow down this team from Lake County. The fourth-place finish puts Lake County back on the basketball map. The previous fourth-place finish was by Waukegan in 1959.

"We shocked Hillcrest and Proviso East. We want to be one of only two teams which get to end their season with a win," Libertyville's Brian Davis said.

"I thought the kids played a good ballgame tonight. You can tell both teams were very worn out and both teams gave it everything they could. We had our moments out there where we played solid basketball. In fact, I thought we did everything we had to to win it, but we didn't."

Against Proviso East, the difference boiled down to a three-point shot by Matt Williams. Down 47-44 after a free throw by Sherrell Ford. The Wildcats got the ball upcourt, and Williams, who had 82 points for the four-game tournament (counting the super-sectional), had a shot dead on, but it rimmed out.

"The kids did a helluva job. We controlled the tempo of the game and that is an accomplishment in itself. There are some fine athletes on that team," Sanders said.

Rebounding proved to be the stumbling block for Libertyville as Proviso East, ranked in the top 10 nationally, and Marshall, a Chicago Public League power, controlled the boards. Marshall outrebounded the Wildcats 37-22. "We did not handle the boards, that's for sure but we did not get a break from the officials."

Proviso East outscored Libertyville 6-2 to close the third quarter, taking a 40-36 lead into the final stanza.

Williams, who scored 10 points and was named to the all-tournament first team, started the rally, followed by a three-pointer by Andy Bauer.

Proviso East kept ahead, on a tip-in basket by Donnie Boyced and three-for-four free-throw shooting.

"They did not give up. Who else can say they came within three points of Proviso East?," Sanders said.

Williams led Libertyville's efforts with 28 points, while Davis and Andy Bauer had 15 each.

The two teams were deadlocked at 44 after three as Williams converted on a layup in the final minute of the third quarter. The two teams exchanged baskets for several minutes, and the Wildcats took a four-point lead as Williams made two free throws for a 60-56 margin with 44.4 seconds left. It remained that way until Marshall's Cesare Christian, who scored 21 points, tipped one in for a two-point deficit. He then added a free-throw, cutting the lead to one and a three-pointer.

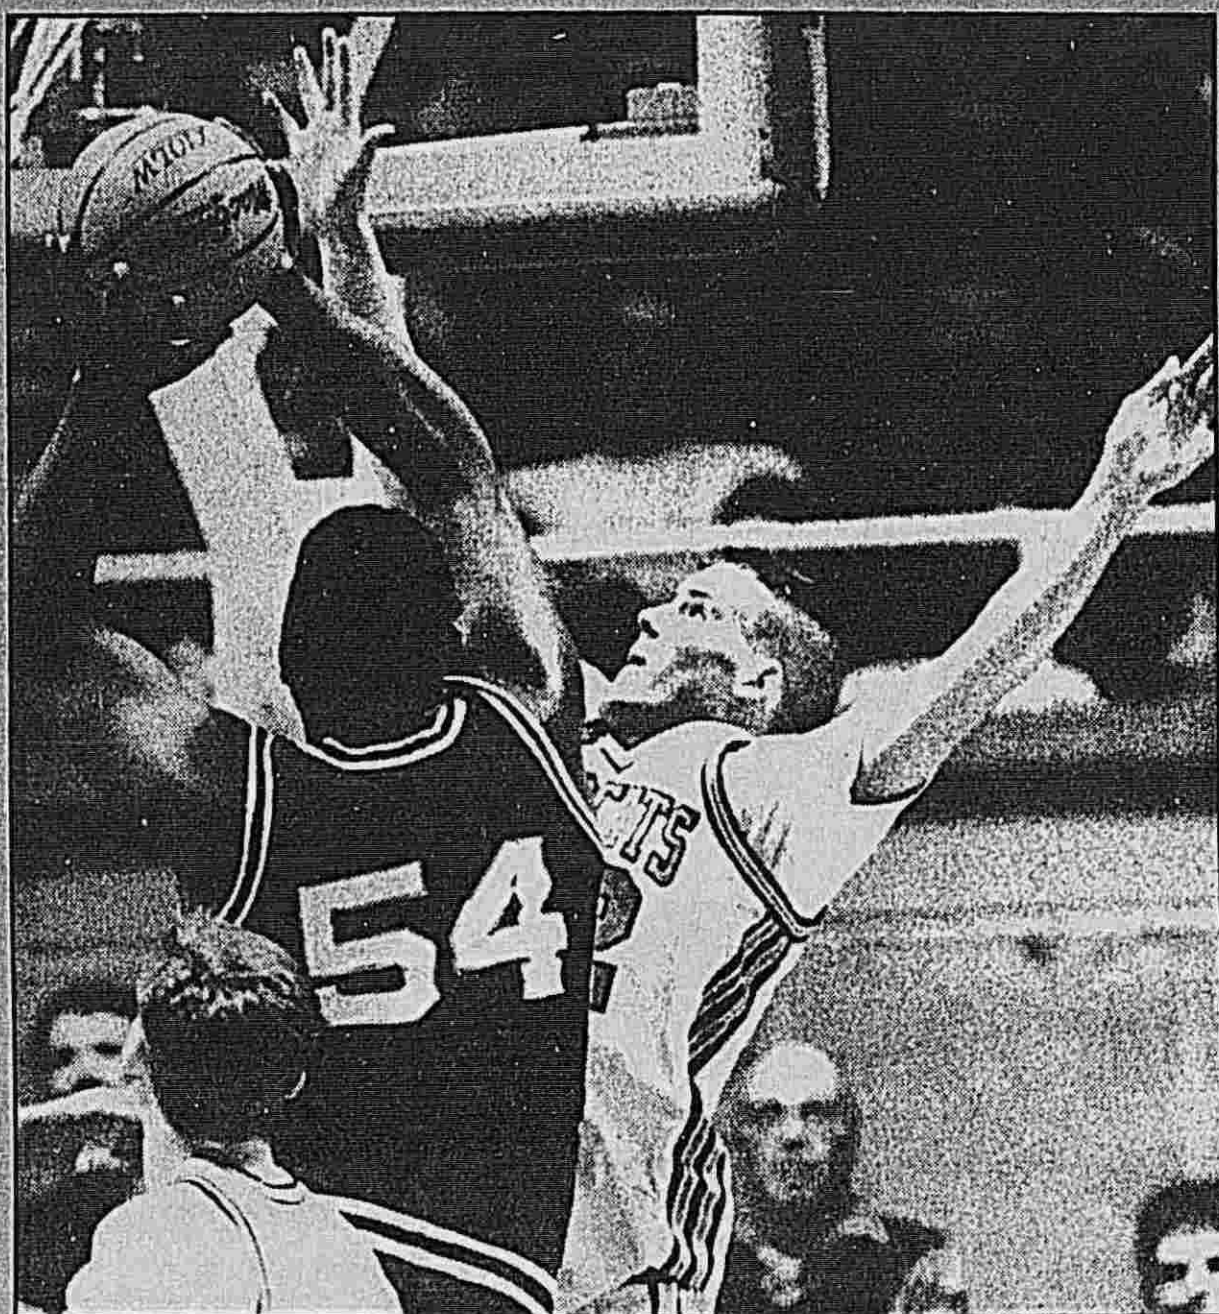

Ontario Brown canned a trey after Williams had a free throw for a 65-65 tie.

Libertyville could have forced overtime with 8.8 seconds to go, but the inbounds pass was an errant one. In stepped Mozell Williams, who grabbed the inbounds pass from Quadell Kimble, who swished a 10 footer, ending Libertyville's season.

"Both teams played pretty good defense, but we played better defense when we needed it. We didn't come down here to get the third-place trophy but we are very thankful to be taking it home," Marshall Coach Luther Bedford said.

"The last play of the game I second guessed myself. I initially thought, what the heck, go for overtime, but instead we went for the big bomb with two and one-half seconds to go. As it turned out we probably should have gone for the overtime. When we threw the ball out of bounds with two and one-half seconds to go it was an eternity," Sanders said.

And now, the Wildcats can remember their fun trip to the Final Four for the same timespan.

No more progress

Libertyville's Jon Bauer tries to stop the progress of Hillcrest's Torrey Lewis. Lewis was held to 15 points, 10 points below his season average, as Libertyville won 68-57. Matt Sriver looks on. Wildcats save their best efforts for Champaign

by STEVE PETERSON
Lakeland Newspapers

During a timeout, the Sterling High School band entertained the Assembly Hall crowd with a rendition of the theme from the television show "Mission Impossible."

The selection was an appropriate one for the Libertyville Wildcats, who were in the process of knocking off Hillcrest 68-57. The win was the first in decades for a Lake County team at Assembly Hall, establishing the Wildcats as one daily newspaper described the team as "darlings" of the tournament. On Sunday, after two close losses in semi-final and third place competition, the Wildcats returned to Libertyville with a fourth-place trophy.

"We're playing the best ball of the year," Libertyville Coach Max Sanders said after the team celebrated. "I was really impressed with the defense in the second half."

The defense was especially tough on Hillcrest's leading scorer, 6-5 Torrey Lewis. Lewis was held to 15 points - 10 below his average, and was the only Hawk player in double figures.

Matt Williams, one of five starting seniors, scored 25 points on 10-for-16 shooting from the floor. Jon Bauer and his brother, Andy, combined for 33 points, Andy 20 and Jon had 13.

"Jon has had a great last four or five games," Sanders said.

"We fronted him (Lewis) and it worked out. They quit going to him," Sanders said.

Libertyville had the minimum of pre-game jitters despite making its first trip to Assembly Hall. The squad which finished third in the North Suburban Conference allowed a game-starting field goal by Lewis, but Williams found his first hoop on a nice pass from John Cimaroli. A three-pointer by Andy Bauer, sent the Libertyville fans into a frenzy as the team gained a 9-6 lead. The two teams were tied at 14 after eight minutes.

In the second quarter, the two teams fought on even terms until Hillcrest gained a 32-29 lead at intermission.

It was all Libertyville in the third quarter. The Wildcats made seven of their first eight shots from the field to grab a lead. Williams scored 10 points in that stretch, highlighted by a scoop shot. A Williams hoop with 3:04 left gave the underdog Wildcats a 46-39 advantage.

Hillcrest could not make a run at the determined Wildcat bunch in the fourth quarter. Their shooting woes continued, making two-of-seven shots, and Libertyville controlled the boards. Two Andy Bauer free throws gave the Wildcats a 57-49 lead.

A frustrated Lewis, stopped cold by the Libertyville defense, took his frustrations out on Williams in a tense play under the basket. He was nailed with a technical foul for the incident. He later kicked a chair as his season ended.

"The loss doesn't bother me as not being associated with these kids anymore. They are really a great group of young men and have worked very hard to get here. Something happened in the game and some of the emotion caught up with us, but once we got them back down to Earth we realized how lucky we were to be here and represent our school," Hillcrest Coach Thomas Cappel, whose team's season ended at 29-3, said.

Cappel said he was most impressed with the Libertyville passing game, as the Wildcats went over the top to beat the Hillcrest press.

Time to recall highlights for 1990-91 campaign

by STEVE PETERSON
Lakeland Newspaper

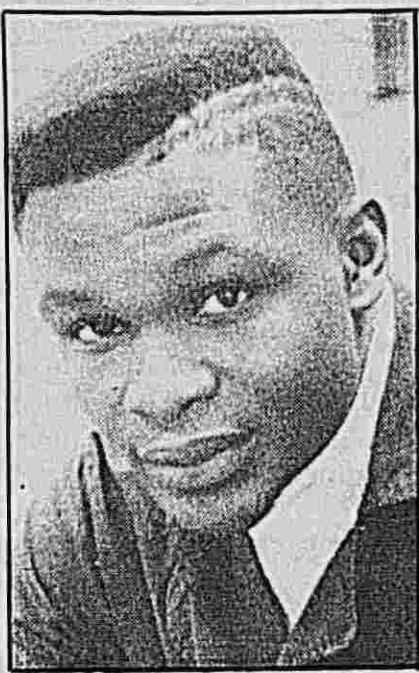

The maps to Champaign have all been tucked away neatly in glove compartments, the countdown to the start of baseball season is on and the golfers are getting ready for another spring on the links.

Area basketball players are enjoying the limelight of post-season awards or practicing for spring sports seasons. And before one closes the books on the 1990-91 season, here's a look at Lakeland Newspapers' all-area team, complete with consideration of play in Class AA state finals games.

Chris Coleman of Stevenson is clearly the MVP. Coleman, a junior, scored 650 points for the 25-3 Patriots who claimed their first-ever North Suburban Conference hoops championship. He joins Timm West of Grayslake, 1988-89 and Shawn Stanek of Libertyville, 1989-90 as MVP winners.

"He is always looking to improve his total game," Stevenson Coach Ken Johnson said.

Coleman has an impressive resume to work from next year: he scored 23.2 points a game, had 34.8 rebounds, 12.4 a game. Who could forget his 43-point performance in the 82-79 overtime win over Warren which clinched the NSC title?

Johnson said he "always expects to see a little of everything" from opposing coaches' defense.

Another junior on the team is Carmel guard Eric Mohr. Mohr finished averaging 14 points a game.

"He raised certain levels of his game from last year. He became a better rebounder and he understood his role," Carmel Coach Scott Rosenberg said.

Mohr was named all East-Suburban Catholic Conference for Carmel, which finished at 16-12.

Warren's Ian Whittington, a 6-4 forward, is one of four seniors on the mythical starting five. Whittington led the 22-6 Blue Devils in scoring with 14 points a game and rebounding with just under 10. He set a school record for rebounds. "I saw significant improvement in Ian," Warren Coach Darrel Bader said. Bader also praised Whittington's leadership. Whittington was one of three Blue Devils named all-NSC.

Whittington will be attending the College of Lake County on a tuition-paid scholarship next year. Bader compared him to Corey Statham, another late bloomer who attended CLC.

Matt Williams makes the team because of his steady play for the state fourth place Libertyville Wildcats. He scored 82 points in four state tournament games, earning him first team all-state honors for LHS.

Shawn Harlan has been a fixture for Mundelein for more than two years now and has been the focus of opposing team's defense. Mundelein made the regional finals this year before bowing out at 13-14. Harlan, a senior, finished among the likes of leading MHS all-time scorer Greg Boyle with his 592 points, 21.9 points a game.

"He had a great influence on the rest of the team," Mundelein Coach Dennis Kessel said.

Harlan was on the varsity for two and one-half years, but he also took care of such off-the-court duties as making sure players get to summer league games.

"Shawn is one of our best in seven years," Kessel said.

Rounding out the starting five is Round Lake guard Wally Illg. Illg was known for his three-pointers from the first day of practice, but few defenses could stop the senior. He hit some 70 "treys" as the Panthers raced to a 14-0 league record and another 20-win season.

The second team could be as formidable as the first. It includes Grant's Rick Twarowski, Round Lake's Dave Burton and leading NWSC rebounder Scott Suhr of Wauconda along with Andy Bauer of Libertyville, who gained all-state mention and guard Steve Knipp of Lake Zurich.

Honorable mention members include Jim Silva of Grayslake, who kept contributing through a 6-20 season; Eric Roth of Stevenson, who scored 16.5 points and had 8.6 rebounds a game, and Carmel junior Pete Eisenbarth, who scored 10 points a game; Johnsbury's Erich Hoffman, whose steady play in the Skyhawks' three-guard rotation was a key in the 15-win season and Hassan Ahamad of North Chicago.

Vikes to meet

Basketball season may just be concluded, but for some, it is time to start planning for football.

The Lake County Vikings semi-pro football team will be hosting an organizational meeting Sunday, March 24. The 2 p.m. meeting will be at All Stars Bar and Grill in Park City, 301 S. Greenleaf St.

All prospective players, ages 18 and over, and returning players are invited. They will have a chance to meet the Vikings' new coach, Russ Kraly and his staff. Kraly, of Round Lake, is taking over the Vikes from Al Clark, who coached the team for the first two years. Kraly will continue in his role as defensive coordinator.

Olympic wrestlers coming to CLC

The College of Lake County will be the site for the World Duals '91, an Olympic freestyle wrestling match between the United States and Canada, on Tuesday, April 2 in the Physical Education Center at CLC, 19351 W. Washington St., Grayslake.

The world dual at 7:30 p.m. will be preceded by preliminary matches at 6 p.m. featuring local area high school wrestlers. Doors will be open at 5 p.m. Admission is $8 ringside, $7 for adults and $5 for persons 18 and under.

The program is co-sponsored by USA Wrestling, the governing body for amateur wrestling in the United States.

Tickets may be purchased in advance by calling (708) 223-6601, ext. 300 or (708) 223-3600 or at the door.

A parent's guide to raising teenagers

March 27, 1991 7-8 p.m.

Presented by:

John Jochem, Psy.D.

Program Director, Adult Psychiatry
Saint Therese Medical Center

Ever feel like you and your adolescent child just don't speak the same language? Is it a mystery for you to understand why your son or daughter cannot follow even basic house rules? This presentation will discuss adolescent developmental and family issues which can cause tension in the family, and will offer practical tips for parents to improve relationships with their teenage kids.

Dr. Jochem, a clinical psychologist, is Program Director of Adult Psychiatry at Saint Therese Medical Center and is affiliated with Lake-Cook Psychologists.

CLC winter athletes honored at banquet

Caryn Alexander, Steve Maiworm and Kelly Painter made off with the major accolades when The College of Lake County honored its winter athletes for the 1990-91 season at last week's banquet.

Women's basketball coach Don Zeman named Alexander the MVP on his squad, which finished 12-15 overall and 6-6 in the Skyway Conference.

Alexander was a nominee for the National Junior College Athletic Association Region IV honor team and nominated to the all-conference squad.

Co-captains Kelly Doyle and Jessica Elsner were both all-conference nominees, while Doyle also earned all-academic honors.

Gina Degrazia was named the most-improved player by Zeman.

Other letter-award winners for women's basketball included Kim Kirchherr, Rachel Smith, Susan Spiller and Andrea True.

On the men's side, Maiworm was tabbed MVP by Coach Bruce Smith. The Lancers finished 7-22 overall and 5-7 in the conference.

Howard McKnight and Alvin Horton were honored as co-captains and second-year players, Ryan Coskey and Corey Statham were lauded as second-year players and Marcus Zackery was praised for being named to the all-conference team.

Jeff Becker and Ken Mattson were also letter-winners in men's basketball.

Painter, who advanced to the NJCAA national tournament, was named wrestling's MVP by Coach Dan Pasiewicz.

Keith Friedman was singled out for his fourth-place finish in the Region IV wrestling tournament.

Also receiving letters on the wrestling squad — which was 4-6 in duals — were Richard Bell, John Von Enige, Dave Sheppard, Bageera Taylor and Scott Taylor.

CLC cheerleaders got the praise due them, too. Advisor Cindy Munda recognized letter-winners Danika Erickson, Lynn Larsen (captain), Sandy Padjen, Heidi Rich and Sherrie Vincent.

Big brothers, big sisters share talents

More than 13 million children in the U.S. are growing up in one parent families.

The patterns of instability and upheaval in family life continues to take their toll. Big Brother/Big Sisters of Lake County is meeting this challenge by matching children, five through fourteen years of age and pregnant/single-parenting girls, 18 and younger, with responsible adults who are willing to spend three to five hours a week for a minimum of one year with them.

Learn more about the program at the volunteer Orientation meetings on Tuesday, April 2 and Monday, April 15 at the Big Brothers/Big Sisters office located at 3838 Grandview Avenue, Gurnee, from 6 to 8 p.m.

For more information and to make your orientation reservation, please call (708)360-0770.

Fetty tees off as Antioch Golf Club pro

Bill Fetty, a seasoned 16-year professional in the golf business, has been hired by the Northbrook-based management firm GreenVisions, Inc. to assume the position of Director of Golf at Antioch Golf Club.

Fetty will replace Dave Greene, who has accepted Director of Golf responsibilities at Thorngate Country Club, another facility under the auspices of GreenVisions. New owners hired GreenVisions to renovate, invigorate, and manage Antioch in 1989.

"I'm looking forward to great things at Antioch," Fetty says. "It's an extremely attractive course as far as appearance and playability. We feel we're Fox Lake's equivalent now, and Antioch will be as nice as any private club in this area."

"We will run a first class operation up here," promises Fetty. "This is not a mom and pop cigar box operation. The conditioning is going to be the best. You haven't seen anything yet."

GreenVisions plans some changes at Antioch in 1991, Fetty says, including several new tees and greens, subtle lengthening of the course, and a completely new 17th hole.

"This is a forgiving, well-maintained golf course," Fetty says. "You can come out and have fun and relax, and the course isn't going to beat you to death. It's highly challenging, but not an intimidating experience."

Richmond candidates concerned with taxes, growth, infrastructure

There are four candidates vying for the three open seats on the Richmond Village Board in the April 2 election.

Three of these faces are new ones to the Richmond political scene, William Israel, Kurt Carlson and Steven Weber.

The only incumbent trustee running is Andre Ryland who had a slight problem filing his candidacy papers because he waited until the filing deadline which fell on Martin Luther King's Birthday and he was unable to get a receipt from the McHenry County offices because it was closed on the holiday.

Ryland is 42 years old and has lived in the village for 10 years. He is presently employed at Siegals Home Bldg. Center in Mundelein. Ryland has been a trustee for one term and is seeking reelection with the "maintenance of the village's old sewer and water systems" a strong priority.

Steven Weber, 37, is a native of the village who is self-employed as a carpet installer. He believes that residents' taxes can be reduced by watching residential growth and enticing more industry into the area to take the tax burden off of the private sector.

William Israel, 39, is employed as a chemical supervisor for Commonwealth

Ryland: Concerned with maintaining the old village sewer and water facilities.

Edison. He is running so that he can do something about the overcrowding at the Richmond Grade School. He believes expansion of the industrial tax base will give the school more money for expansion. He looks to Spring Grove for assistance. Recycling is another priority.

Kurt Carlson, 31, has lived in Richmond for just over two years. He is a manufacturing project engineer for Brunk Industries in Lake Geneva. He is one of those residents opposed to the auto race-track proposed for Genoa City, Richmond's northern neighbor. If elected he will call for the government to take a more active role in this opposition. Carlson is also interested in the possible impact that the proposed Fox Valley Freeway will be having on the village.

Richmond Trailblazers ride for Easter Seals Society

The Richmond Trailblazers Snowmobile Club announced its donation of more than $5,400 to the Easter Seal Society of McHenry County. This donation was the result of a pledge ride in which 48 club members participated. These club members secured pledges in various amounts from friends, relatives and business acquaintances.

Preparations for this event started in November after a presentation from a representative from the Easter Seal Society at a regular meeting. Andy Kelly, the McHenry County Easter Seal Society Poster Child visited the Christmas party.

A committee co-chaired by Peg Stevens and Carol

Kramer with the assistance of Scott Schlendorf and Joann Dickow, started organizing the event. Pledge sheets were distributed and several enthusiastic club members proceeded to secure pledges beyond the anticipated goal. The top pledge rider was Harvey Petska who received pledges of $1,085. The next two highest pledge riders were Peg Stevens with $765 and Sherman Spencer with $455.

On Feb. 10 a check was presented to the Easter Seal Society of McHenry County.

Grant honors basketball players, cheerleaders, managers, staff

The Grant High School Boys Basketball program honored the players, cheerleaders, managers, and staff who contributed to the successful season. Over 100 were in attendance at the 16th Annual Awards night, held in the Grant Lecture Hall.

Coach Tom Maple provided the welcome. First to receive recognition was the cheerleading squad. Seniors Leah Kaminsky, Carrie Cusker, Cindy Kendall, Anne Lahay, Chris Meyers, and Kirsten Davis accepted Special Spirit Plaques and cheer Coaches Sheryl Dempsey and Dena Pachucki received awards for their special efforts. The Pom Pon Squad and Coach Maureen Preston, the Flag Corp and Pep Band with Sponsor Chris Buti were also recognized.

Special support people also were honored with thank you plaques. Derek Gruber for his help as Varsity Game announcer, Kellie Siebert and Kim Garvey for their loyalty and help with game statistics. Paul Winfrey also was applauded for his inspiring trumpet solos of the National Anthem at home contests. Also a special note of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Eiduke for their video taping assistance.

Freshmen basketball players were next awarded their numerals and certificates by Coach Dave Einhorn. Special awards went to Brett Bending for Bulldog Hustle and Bill Richards for Most Rebounds. Most Improved was Bill Pinkowski. Justin Nelson earned Best Free Throw Percentage and Mike Ingram Leading Scorer. Kurt Filiatreault Collected Buckets and Boards. Assist Leader went to Josh Pierce and Sixth Man Award to Mike Lanners. Mike Ingram, Kurt Filiatreault, Bill Pinkowski, and Bill Richards also received Player of the Week Certificates.

Coach Fritz Kazlauskas presented minor awards to the Sophomore squad. Cited for special awards were Steve Richford as Most Improved and Brian McNally for Bulldog Hustle. Jeff Russ won the Bulldog Defense and Nelson Anderson the Best Field Goal Percentage. Buckets and Boards was accepted by Dave Lipinski and Steals and Deals by Lou Notriano. Winner of Best Free Throw Percentage and Most Valuable Player was Tim Culotta who also was cited for setting a new Sophomore Scoring Record. Player of the Week certificates were also won by Lou Notriano, Dave Lipinski, Tim Culotta, and Steve Richford. Coach Kazlauskas was presented a special award to honor his 200th Victory in the NWSC.

Coach George Faoro followed with Junior Varsity letters and recognition for Doug Bein, Ryan Stochl, Sean McGeever, and Jason Dietz. All Juniors will also receive Player of the Week Certificates. Sean McGeever was named to the Junior Most Improved Plaque. Manager Eric McDermitt received the Sports Illustrated cover portrait from Coach Faoro.

Coach Maple concluded awards night presentations with Varsity honors. Team captions John Eiduke and Rick Twarowski received Varsity letters as did other Seniors Aaron Foscze, Keir Stahlhut, Jason Amedio, Rob Lejman, and Demian Vela. Manager Eric McDermitt also earned and accepted his Varsity G.

Eiduke won the Practice Free Throw Award, the Harvard All Tournament Team Medal, and a special plaque to honor his school record in single game assists. Demian Vela won Most Rebounds Award and Keir Stahlhut the Senior Merit plaque. Rick Twarowski was presented medals for the Harvard All Tournament Team and Hampshire Christmas All Tournament Team. All Seniors will also receive Player of the Week certificates.

Major trophy awards were acknowledged in seven categories. Rob Lejman qualified as winner of the Hopkins Buckets and Boards, and John Eiduke in both the Bitner Free Throw Percentage and the Grossman Assist Leader. Jason Amedio captured the Hamsher

Most Improved, Aaron Foscze the Kennetz Hustle, and Demian Vela earned the Medine Defense honor. Rick Twarowski was named the Gardner Most Valuable Player and also to the Northwest Suburban All Conference Team. Twarowski also was first team Northwest Suburban Conference All-Academic squad with Keir Stahlhut, Aaron Foscze, and Demian Vela qualifying for NWSC All Academic - Honorable Mention.

Coach Tom Maple concluded ceremonies by thanking the athletes for their contributions and for those parents who supported Grant Basketball.

Top spellers advance to Chicago finals

The last of three sectional Spelling Bees for Lake County students in grades four through eight was completed. The 1991 Scripps-Howard National Spelling Bee is sponsored in part by the Lake County Regional Supt. of Schools office.

Winner of Section 3, held at Big Hollow Elementary

School, Ingleside, for the second year in a row, was Michael Nash, eighth grade student at St. Joseph's School in Libertyville. The winning word he successfully spelled was "aliquot" — 'contained an exact number of times in something else.'

Section 3 runner-up, also for the second year in a row, was Michael Cullen, eighth grade student at Woodland Junior High School in Gages Lake. The word which he missed was "caryatid" — 'a draped female figure that serves as an architectural column.'

Winner of the Section 1 competition which was held at Lake Bluff Junior High School was Sruti Nadim-palli, sixth grade student at Northwood School in Highwood-Highland Park Dist. 111 who also won last year. Her winning word was "condolence."

Runner-up for Section 1 was Caroline Kaufmann, eighth grade student at St. Mary's School in Buffalo Grove. The word she missed was "hydrangea."

The above two winners will join Section 2 winner, Christa Berens from Viking Junior High School, Gurnee at the Chicagoland Spelling Bee finals at the Tribune Tower, 9:30 a.m. on Saturday, April 13. The top speller from the City of Chicago and the top speller from a Chicagoland suburb, along with their parents will travel to Washington, D.C. late in May to compete in the National Spelling Bee.

Pistakee Yacht Club is beginning registration for the 1991 Sailing School. Classes include Beginner, Intermediate and Adult formats. Schedules are morning, afternoon, evening on Mondays and Wednesdays, Tuesdays and Thursdays, Saturday in three-week sessions (see attached schedule) beginning June 3. Instruction takes place at the Pistakee Yacht Club on Pistakee Bay in the one-design "Butterfly" sailboat by a USYRU certified instructor. Contact Leroy Munster for information. (708)587-6460.

Volunteers earn credit

Connection, Inc., a telephone crisis line in Libertyville, recently concluded an agreement with National-Louis University in Evanston under which Connection's volunteers can earn graduate or undergraduate academic credit for completing the crisis line's training course and for time spent working with the crisis line's callers.

The next training class will begin on April 4th. Interested persons may obtain further information by telephoning Connection's office (708)362-3381.

Students get scholarships

Several students were awarded the Caterpillar Inc. Endowed Scholarship for 1990-91 at Bradley University.

"...I began to survey friends, neighbors and customers..."

"They didn't like the fact that their neighbor may have bought the same vehicle and paid $1,000 less because they did a better job negotiating."

"So I've decided to respond to the survey and take the negotiating out of buying a car."

"Now through March 30th, every new and used car and truck has a red tag clearly marked with the lowest price anywhere."

"Call it an experiment, call it a Red Tag Sale, regardless,
if you're looking for a vehicle
you owe it to yourself to shop Palmen."
